And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed third reading.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I voted "aye".

Mr. SMITH. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. SMITH. Mr. President, I voted "aye".

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend Section 11-B, page 8, line 25, by inserting after the word "anaesthetics" the following: "The Osteopathic Surgeons' Examining Board shall examine and fix the rating of all osteopathic colleges and hospitals for graduate students and provide interne positions as hereinbefore provided for; this inspection and rating as it relates to surgery only. The same standard for graduates in medicine shall be used for examination by the Osteopathic Examining Board in the examination of ostheopathic graduates for license to practice surgery;" also page 9, line 22, by striking out the word "Proveded" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "provided."

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to,

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 516, on final passage, entitled:

An Act providing for the appointment and election of assistant assessors for election purposes in certain wards in cities of the third class fixing their terms of office and providing for their compensation be recommitted to the Committee on Municipal Affairs.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, this Bill, No. 516, No. 80 at the bottom of page 4 of the calendar, and No. 81, at the top of page 5, are three bills that jointly would abolish personal registration in cities of the third class. They are all contingent upon each other and of course all depends upon the passage of Bill No. 80. If Bill No. 80 would not pass then the passage of the other bills is not desirable. These bills have been in and out of committee repeatedly. They were sent back two weeks ago on motion of Senator Joyce and they were in the Committee on Elections since that time and nobody requested a hearing. They are out again and any request for a hearing at this time is simply an effort to kill the bills. These bills should not be sent back again but they should be voted upon by the Senate.

The effect of the passage of these bills is to put the registration of voters in cities of the first class under the same system that we now have in boroughs and townships and under the same system that we had in cities of the third class prior to the passage of the Act of 1906. Personal registration in cities of the third class is nothing but a nuisance. It benefits nobody. It was one of the reforms that proved not to reform anything, and I know that the rank and file of the voters of the cities of the third class desire the passage of these bills, and, as I say, they simplify the registration of the voters and establish the same system that you now have in boroughs and townships and restore the same system that you have in cities of the third class prior to the passage of the Act of 1906. The people of my city, of the third class, are unanimously for it and I have letters from all over the state, from the cities of Reading and Altoona, and all over the state, the people of the cities of the third class unanimously desire the passage of these acts.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I represent the City of Altoona and I know that some of the citizens of Altoona do not want this change. We consider it a step backward. We think that the Personal Registration Act for cities of the third class is a very good measure and productive of a very great deal of good. I would like to have our cities heard, and for that reason I would like to see this bill go back to committee for a hearing.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I do not believe that it would be possible for this body to do any one thing that would be more of a step backward than to repeal the law that provides for the personal registration of voters for cities of the third class. For years and years the citizens of the cities of the third class fought for this legislation. The cities of the first class have it now, the cities of the second class have it, and in my own district where I live, prior to the passage of this act, at one election the assessors had placed upon the voting rolls 734 votes. I was a candidate for office at that time and made a personal canvass over this district, and I found that the assessor had placed upon the roll more than 200 hundred voters that did not live in the district at all. I went into the Common Pleas Court of Allegheny County and had stricken from the registry list more than 200 names of voters that did not live in the district at all. It developed at the hearing that one of the candidates for office had presented to the registrar a list of 50 names to be placed upon the roll, none of whom lived in the district, and I believe that the cities of the third class are at least entitled to a hearing on this bill. When it was recommitted before it was recommitted with the understanding that there would be a hearing and it was reported out of committee without a meeting of the committee, I think that it would be a step backward for this body to think of passing a law such as this at this time.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, these bills were distinctly voted out of committee, and, as I say, two weeks ago they were sent back and then nobody wanted a hearing. Two weeks have gone by, I waited patiently for anybody to ask for a hearing and nobody asked for a hearing until we move again. I imagine they wanted to wait until after the session before a request for a hearing would come in Mr. President, as I have said, these three bills are all contingent upon the passage of No. 80. I am willing to pass this one over until we have acted upon No. 80 and if that one does not pass I will withdraw the other two.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A division being called for the yeas were 21 and the nays 19, whereupon the question was decided in the affirmative.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 743, as follows:

BILLS RECOMMITTED.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 80, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to repeal the act approved the fifth day of March, one thousand, nine hundred and six, (P. L. 63), entitled "An Act to provide for the personal registration of electors in cities of the third class of this Commonwealth, to make such registration a condition of the right to vote in such cities, and to provide penalties for violation of its provisions," and the amendments and supplements thereto.

And Senate Bill No. 81, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend sections two, three, four and six of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, (P. L. 1043), entitled "An act to provide for the registration and enrollment of the voters of the State according to their respective party preferences; fixing the compensation of assessors and registry assessors for making said registration and enrollment; and prescribing penalties for false registration or enrollment, and for voters voting or attempting to vote, and for the election officers wilfully permitting or conspiring to permit them to vote, at a primary, by or on any other than their own party ticket;" providing for the enrollment of electors in cities of the third class by assessors and registry assessors.

be recommitted to the Committee on Municipal Affairs for a hearing.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I want to state again that the reason assigned for the recommitment of these bills, for the purpose of a hearing, is not correct, because no hearing had been desired or requested. As I say, these bills were sent back two weeks ago for that purpose and nobody requested a hearing, so I want to deny the statement that they are sent back for hearing.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I do have requests from people in my district for a hearing.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 266, entitled:

An Act providing for only one assessment of all property for taxation in cities of the third class within this Commonwealth directing said assessment to be made by the city assessors of said cities and said city assessors in addition to their duties as such assessors, to perform all other duties now performed by the county assessors in said cities and requiring said cities to furnish copies of said assessment to each of the boards of school directors in said cities to each of the boards of county commissioners of the respective counties wherein said cities are located and to all other boards or authorities levying and collecting taxes in said cities and all taxes, city, school, county, poor and other taxes to be levied on said assessment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1018, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to section seven of article three of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I wish to call the attention of the members of the Senate to this bill. It is a joint resolution proposing an amendment to Section 7 of Article 3 of the Constitution. Section 7 of Article 3 of the Constitution reads as follows:

"The General Assembly shall not pass any local or special law authorizing the creation, extension or impairing of liens". Then come the items covered by that section, including the part in reference to the election laws, which the Constitution provides:

"All laws regulating the holding of elections by the citizens or for the registration of electors shall be uniform throughout the State, but laws regulating and requiring registration of electors may be enacted to cities only; provided that such laws be uniform for cities of the same class".

In an analysis of the operation of the election laws, as compiled, the Constitution in a sense provides that all laws regulating the holding of elections by citizens shall be uniform throughout the State, which is Article 8, Section 7 of the Constitution.

The amendment proposed by this Joint Resolution provides as follows:

"For the opening and conducting of elections or fixing or changing the place of voting, Provided however that the General Assembly may pass legislation applying to Allegheny County or any part thereof providing for the installation and use of voting machines at any election or primary, and providing for their optional installation and use subject to the approval of the court of common pleas."

Mr. President, I do not desire to place myself on record or to try to convince the members of this Senate as to the constitutionality of this Joint Resolution, if it should prevail in this Senate, and again two years hence and then come before the vote of the people, but I have talked to a great number of attorneys, attorneys in this Senate, and others, and submitted this amendment. This amendment is not even general throughout the County of Allegheny. It is optional on the part of the certain persons of the city government or county government, the County Commissioners or those authorized to provide the paraphernalia for holding elections. According to this act voting machines may be provided in certain localities. As I understand the Constitution of this State and of these United States, it is for all the people within the confines of this State, and likewise the Constitution of the United States. So if the Constitution of this State be so amended any of the sixty-seven counties might arise at any time and ask for a Constitutional Amendment, so as to provide for something in their particular locality. Certainly it would not be a constitution of the people as a whole, it would be a patchwork proposition not as the constitution that we are now operating under. I made inquiry as to the classification of counties, eight classifications, as to whether that act had been decided as to its constitutionality and I am informed it has not. I helped to pass that legislation for the reason that certain counties were being imposed upon by certain laws in regard to salaries and positions in the county, but there is great doubt about the constitutionality of that act, that is perfectly plain and I do not think there should be any hesitancy on the part of any one and there has been no one that I have spoken to who has hesitated to say that they cannot agree that the joint resolution even if submitted to the people would be constitutional.

I have no desire to discuss the merits or demerits of voting machines. I recognize there is a difference of opinion. I want to inform the Senate that twenty-five years ago, I was very much interested at the solicitation of some of our people of Allegheny County, in the City of Pittsburgh, and arranged for an exhibition of a voting machine, that was in operation in certain parts of New York. We had it on exhibition for a period of thirty days. Now we all know that from that day up to the present time, there had been various promoters trying to put voting machines into operation in this State. A similar act or joint resolution, but general in its terms, was introduced in the House. That resolution was defeated by the members of the House and then we find this resolution put in but not making it general, allowing portions of the State to adopt it if they see fit but to confine it to one county, namely Allegheny County and then only portions thereof, as they see fit to use it.

I ask the Senate to vote down this bill and I want to add one other point in connection with it. There are a number of resolutions to amend the Constitution of the State, and several of them I believe have been passed and are in the hands of the Governor. I made inquiry and I am informed that it would cost the State of Pennsylvania from thirty to seventy thousand dollars for the publication of these joint resolutions prior to submitting it to a vote of the people. I am not speaking for economy. If the law were made general and voting machines installed throughout the State then possibly there might be some person here who would argue as to the benefits to be derived. The law is not general, it is confined to one county and then only to a part of the county. Upon these grounds, I ask the Senate to vote down this resolution.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President. I think we should not go into the matter of whether this bill meets with the Constitution or not. It is something that applies to Allegheny County only and, as Senator Leslie has said, there is a difference of opinion as to whether it is constitutional or not. Our lawyers who helped to draw the bill think it is constitutional. I think it would be well for this Senate to let us fight it out ourselves, or let it be taken care of by the Attorney General's Office. I know a majority of the Senators from Allegheny County are for this bill and I hope it will pass.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, when I first looked at this constitutional amendment as it was handed to me, I was inclined to agree with the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, but after having talked with some good lawyers of Allegheny County they convinced me that I was not a lawyer and I didn't know what I was talking about and I now on the floor of the Senate confess that I am not a lawyer and I do not know whether it is constitutional or not, but they say so and I introduced it and introduced it in good faith and a majority of the Senators from Allegheny County are for it. It has been the rule in the Senate, I understand, over a long, long period of time, that when a majority of a delegation are for a bill they get it. That seems to have been an unbroken rule of this Senate for a long, long time, so far as I can find out. I have learned from a Pittsburgher, who has worked out in detail the difference in cost between an election where a voting machine is used and where the present method of voting is used, of the great savings that can be made by use of the voting machine. I was amazed to learn that it runs into an enormous amount of money. I was also amazed to learn that the cost of the machine placed in every district in the County of Allegheny, sparsely settled and thickly settled, would give the County of Allegheny twenty-seven and one-half per cent on the investment on the difference between the present cost and the voting machine method. The cost of the present method as shown is $265,000 and upon the machine method $245,000, showing a saving of $20 to each election district. The voting machine would take the place of two voting districts, it would show the saving in the cost of one election district $285, and the elimination of two clerks on the voting machine board, or $20, making a total saving of $305 per district. The cost of the voting machine is $1,000. The interest on $1,000 at 6 per cent, $60, the average interest charge of the machine would be $30 per year until the machine is paid for, leaving $275 annually in the sinking fund, which would pay for the cost of the machine in less than five years.

I do not want to take up the time of the Senate in arguing this case, I am going to ask that the paper to which I referred be inserted in the record for the use of the Senators and members of the House, if the bill goes through the Senate. I am going to ask in view of the rule established in this Senate for a long, long time, that the majority of the delegation from Allegheny be extended the courtesy of having the legislation that affects only their district, receive favorable consideration.

Pittsburgh, Pa., May 12, 1923.

Hon. C. M. Barr, Peoples Bank Building, Pittsburgh, Pa.

My dear Senator: Answering your inquiry as to the use and cost of voting machines in Allegheny county as provided for in Senate Bill No. 1018, which provides for the Constitutional Amendment authorizing the installation of voting machines in Allegheny county, would say that the facts are as follows:

In even numbered years, the cost of one primary and one general election is as follows:

One Judge	$ 15.00
Two Inspectors	20.00
Two Clerks	20.00
Four Registers, sitting four times @ $40.00	160.00
Rent of Polling Place	60.00
Care of equipment	10.00	$ 285.00

ODD NUMBERED YEARS.

One Judge	$ 15.00
Two Inspectors	20.00
Two Clerks	20.00
Four Registers, sitting three times @ $40.00	120.00
Rent	60.00
Care of equipment	10.00	245.00
Total one even and one odd year		$530.00
Average cost per year		$265.00

The above provides for the casting of votes up to 250, as provided for in the Constitution.

The cost of voting by the use of the voting machines, which accommodate between 500 and 600 voters, is as follows:

EVEN NUMBERED YEARS.

One Judge	$ 15.00
Two Inspectors	20.00
Four Registers, sitting four times @ $40.00	160.00
Rent	60.00
Care of equipment	10.00	$265.00

ODD NUMBERED YEARS.

One Judge	$ 15.00
Two Inspectors	20.00
Four Registers, sitting three times @ $40.00	120.00
Rent	60.00
Care of equipment	10.00	225.00
Total—one even and one odd year		$490.00
Average cost yer year		245.00

The cost of the present method as shown above, is $265.00, and by the cost of the machine method, the cost is $245,00, showing a saving of $20.00 for each election district.

The voting machine would take the place of two voting districts, which would show the saving of the cost of one election district, $285.00, and the elimination of two clerks on the voting machine board, or $20.00, making a total saving of $305.00 per district. The cost of a voting machine is $1,000.00. The interest on $1,000.00 at 6% would be $60.00, but the average interest charge on a machine would be $30.00 per year until the machine is paid for, leaving $275.00 annually in the sinking fund, which would pay for the cost of the machine in less than five years.

The machines are adaptable to thickly settled districts such as the cities and boroughs of which, there are nine hundred in Allegheny county. Cutting this in half would mean 450 districts or 450 machines, representing an investment of four hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($450,000.00). The sinking fund of $275.00 is equivalent to 27½% on the cost of the machine. The investment of $450,000.00 would have an earning of 27½%, or a total earning of $123,750.00, showing that the machine would pay for itself with interest on the money in five years.

The advantages of the machine are, that it would practically eliminate all fraudulent voting and would be as safe as the cash register machine is now, which has always been a success. The votes would be counted within fifteen minutes after the polls are closed, which is very much of an advantage over the present practice which necessitates election boards to sit until 2:00, 3:00 or 4:00 o'clock in the morning. By the present system it is very difficult to get either men or women to serve on the election boards and is one of the reasons why the ballot box stuffing and false counting is so easily done. The history of ballot box irregularities in Allegheny county and especially in the City of Pittsburgh has been very glaring and breaks the heart of many a man, who runs up against a well developed conspiracy to deprive him of his election. The voting machine now in operation at the Capitol at Harrisburg, shows that it would be easily practicable to vote from 250 to 300 straight party tickets per hour and mixed tickets, such as are in use in the general elections and primaries from 150 to 200 tickets per hour, which would easily take care of the 500 or 600 votes that would be cast in one voting machine district.

Practically all of Allegheny county officials and all of the city government and twenty-two out of the 33 of the senators and representatives of Allegheny county favor the adoption of the voting machine bill with its companion bills. These bills have to be approved by two legislatures and approved by the people, and then have to be approved by the county commissioners, with the right to take as many machines as they wish,—their action to be approved by the courts.

I do not think it is possible to put more safeguards around the law that provides for the ultimate expenditure of $450,000.00 with an earning power of 27½ %.

In addition, the practice in Allegheny county will be a source of education to the other thickly populated counties throughout the State.

Yours very sincerely
Wm. FLINN.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I would like to join with my colleagues, Senator Barr and Senator Harris, in asking the members of this Senate to pass this bill. In answer to the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, in reference to the question of only including Allegheny county in this Act, that was done for one specific purpose, those in Allegheny county who favored the Act were under the impression that the other counties did not want to adopt the voting machine, and inasmuch as the majority of the Senators from Allegheny county would like to have them adopted in their county I think it is only fair to ask the members of this Senate to grant that courtesy to the Senators from Allegheny county.

An Act providing for the rebuilding by the Commonwealth through the Department of Highways of certain county bridges the procedure therefor the payment of a portion of the cost thereof in certain cases by counties and railroads and the maintenance thereof when completed by the counties

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That this act shall apply to all bridges maintained owned and controlled by the several counties and known as county bridges which now are or hereafter may be erected over and across the navigable rivers and such other streams as have been declared public highways by act of assembly

Section 2 Whenever any such bridge has been or shall be carried away or destroyed by flood or wind storm the Department of Highways shall rebuild the same according to the provisions of this act which shall apply also to any second or subsequent destruction or carrying away of such bridge by flood or wind storm

In rebuilding any such bridge the Department to facilitate public travel and eliminate grade crossings may rebuild such bridge and the necessary approches thereto at a lower or higher elevation than the former bridge or may rebuild the same upon a new site provided the viewers appointed by the court recommend such change of site or elevation

Section 3 Whenever any such county bridge shall be so carried away or destroyed by flood or wind storm the county commissioners of the county in which such bridge is located—or when such bridge crosses the boundary line between two counties then the commissioners of both counties—may apply by petition to the court of common pleas of Dauphin county setting forth fully in said petition the location of such birdge the time when a bridge was first erected in the same location as a county bridge the time the bridge was carried away or destroyed by flood or wind the character of the bridge so carried away or destroyed and the probable cost of replacing the same

Section 4 Whereupon it shall be the duty of the court to appoint five viewers one of whom shall be a civil engineer and not more than two of whom shall be residents of the county wherein such bridge is proposed to be built

Section 5 The Attorney General shall be given due notice of the time of filing the petition and the application for viewers and it shall be his duty to appear for and defend the interests of the Commonwealth in all such proceedings

Section 6 The viewers so appointed after having been duly sworn to faithfully perform their duties shall proceed to view the location of the proposed bridge and make report at such time as the court may direct which report shall contain an accurate statement of the kind and character of the bridge carried away or destroyed which it is proposed to replace the length of time since the first bridge was built on the same location as a county bridge the length of the bridge together with a recommendation of the viewers as to the kind of bridge needed and the probable cost thereof and it shall be the duty of the said viewers to inquire whether the accommodation of the traveling public in the locality demands the rebuilding of said bridge

Section 7 Whenever it appears to the viewers that the proper accommodation of the traveling public so demands they may recommend a larger bridge than the one carried away or destroyed to be constructed at the joint expense of the State and the county or counties in or between which the same is located

Section 8 In rebuilding any bridge and the approaches thereto under this act the Department and any city county or railroad company or any two or more of them may enter into agreements for the joint payment in proportions to be agreed upon of the cost of such rebuilding of said bridge and the approaches

Section 9 In all cases of rebuilding of bridges under this act the expenses to the State shall be limited to the sum required to construct a bridge of the dimensions and characer of the old bridge destroyed or carried away and at the old site and elevation

The Department of Highways in preparing the plans and specifications as herein provided shall determine the sum due by the State

Section 10 Upon the filing of such report both the county and the Commonwealth shall have the right to file exceptions thereto at any time within thirty days and it shall be the duty of the court after full hearing by depositions or otherwise as the said court may direct to determine all questions raised by the petition or exceptions and to the final order so made either the county or the Commonwealth shall have the right of appeal to the Supreme Court at any time within thirty days

Section 11 In case the report of the viewers or a majority of them is in favor of the erection of the bridge and the same is confirmed by the court the court shall order and decree such rebuilding Thereupon it shall be the duty of the Department immediately to proceed and have prepared in conformity with the report of the viewers such plans and specifications of the proposed bridge as may be necessary and appoint a superintendent of construction and fix his compensation for said services

Section 12 The Department shall advertise for bids in not less than three daily newspapers two of which shall be published in the county or counties in which such pridge is located and the other one published in the State capital for a period of three weeks In counties in which less than two daily newspapers are published the advertisement for bids shall be inserted in two weekly newspapers of the county or counties as the court may direct

The Department shall let the contract for the rebuilding of such bridge to the lowest and best bidder

He may reject any or all bids that may be submitted and may readvertise for the same in the manner aforesaid

Upon acceptance of any bid the Department on behalf of the Commonwealth shall enter into a contract for rebuilding of said bridge with such bidder under the advice and direction of the Attorney General

Section 13 The Department in contracting under this act for the rebuilding of county bridges shall not exceed in the aggregate liability of the State in the award of such contracts the sum set aside in the biennial budget for this purpose

Section 14 Any person for himself or acting as an agent for any association copartnership or corporation who shall do or permit any act which interferes with or prevents fair competition among bidders or submits a collusive bid or enters into collusion in the making or submission of bids or in obtaining the same for any such construction repairing or rebuilding of a county bridge shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or to undergo imprisonment for the term of two years or both at the discretion of the court

Section 15 Every bridge so erected by the Commonwealth under contract with it shall be inspected by three fit persons to be appointed by the court of common pleas of Dauphin county none of whom shall be residents of or property holders in the county wherein the bridge is located and make report of the result of their inspection to the said court

Section 16 When report is made by said inspectors that such bridge has been erected according to the contract for the erection of the same the same shall be approved by the court but if the persons so appointed to inspect such bridge shall not approve of the same they shall report to the court what sum in their judgment ought to be deducted from the sum stipulated in such contract and thereupon the court shall grant a rule upon the builder or contractor to show cause against the said report at the time and place in such rule to be named After the service and return of such rule it shall be lawful for the builder or contractor to file a declaration or statement in the said court of common pleas of Dauphin county upon the contract made by him with the Commonwealth as aforesaid and thereupon proceed to trial in due course in like manner as if an action has been commenced by him upon such contract against the Commonwealth

Section 17 Partial payments on contracts heretofore or hereafter entered into shall be made from time to time to the contractor as the work progresses based upon estimates made by the superintendent of construction setting forth the relative value of work done and by him approved at the time of estimate as compared with the total contract price all such estimates however to be approved by the Department but at no time before the completion of the work and final approval thereof by the court shall any payment or payments be made in excess of eighty per centum of the estimated value of work done and approved by the superintendent of construction in manner aforesaid If by the report of the inspectors it appears that said bridge has been built in conformity with the terms of the contract and specifications and such report is approved by the court payment shall be made of all the contract price not previously paid Upon approval of any estimate by the Department or upon approval by the court of the report of the inspectors finding that the bridge has been built in conformity with the terms of the contract and specifications as the case may be it shall become the duty of the Auditor General to draw a proper warrant upon the State Treasurer in accordance with the foregoing payable out of the appropriation made for such purpose or the same may be paid by the Department out of any funds made available by the provisions of this act

Section 18 If by the report of the inspectors it is made to appear that a deduction should be made from the contract price as hereinbefore mentioned and such report is acquiesced in by the contractor or the amount of the contract price owing is finally determined by the said court in the manner hereinbefore provided it shall be the duty of the Auditor General in like manner to draw a proper warrant for such sum as shall thus appear to be owing exclusive of any payments that have been previously made upon the State Treasurer in full satisfaction of the claims of the contractor or the same shall be fully paid by the Department from funds made available for such purposes

Section 19 Whenever a bridge rebuilt under the provisions of this act is on the route of a State Highway payment of the amount due by the State may be made from the funds available for the construction of State Highways

Whenever a bridge rebuilt under the provisions of this act is on the route of a State-aid Highway payment of the amount due by the State may be made from the funds available for the construction of State-aid Highways

Section 20 The fees and expenses to be allowed the viewers and inspectors and the proper charge for the preparations of the plans and specifications of such bridge and the superintending of construction of the same the cost of advertising cost of all legal proceedings and all other costs and expenses whatsoever shall be paid by the county or counties in which the bridge is located and the amount of the fees and expenses herein provided to be paid shall be fixed by the court according to the circumstances of the case upon notice to the county commissioners

Section 21 All bridges erected under the provisions of this act shall be maintained and at all times kept in good repair by the county in which the same may be located at its proper expense and in case such bridge is over any stream forming the boundary line between two counties the same shall be maintained and kept in repair at the joint expense of such counties

Section 22 All bridges now in the course of construction under the provisions of the Act of June third one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five (Pamphlet Laws one hundred thirty) entitled "An act authorizing the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to rebuild county bridges over navigable rivers and other streams which have been declared public highways by Act of Assembly where such bridges have been destroyed by flood fire or other casualty providing for the appointment of viewers and inspectors and the payment of cost of rebuilding such bridges" and its amendments shall be completed according to the same under the authority and direction of the Department of Highways and all papers records and documents relating to the same and in the hands of the Board of Commissioners of Public Grounds and Buildings are hereby transferred to the Department of Highways

A Joint Resolution making an appropriation to the Auditor General for the purpose of adjusting and paying certain outstanding bills contracted by the commission appointed under the provisions of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws one thousand three hundred and six) entitled "An act to provide for the selection of a site and the erection of a State institution for the detention care and treatment of inebriates or persons habitually addicted to the use of alcoholic drink or intoxicating drugs to be called the State Institution for Inebriates and making an appropriation therefor"

Whereas By the provision of said act approved the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirteen a commission was created to acquire a site select an architect and to provide for the erection of an institution for inebriates and

Whereas Said commission was appointed acquired a site and selected an architect by whom certain services were performed in one thousand nine hundred and fifteen but the said commission deemed it expedient to proceed on account of the World War and it is now proposed by the Administrative Code to transfer the site so acquired to be known as the New Cumberland Industrial Farm to a board of trustees and

Whereas It appears that the commission appointed by Governor Brumbaugh in one thousand nine hundred and seventeen were not confirmed by the Senate and that no appointments were made by Governor Sproul or confirmed by the Senate during his administration and that therefore no commission now exists authorized to manage the affairs of the said activities provided for by the above act nor to pay debts contracted by the said commission and

Whereas There is now a balance of about one hundred thirty thousand dollars ($130,000) unexpended of the appropriations made by the acts aforesaid therefore be it

Section 1 Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met That the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the Auditor General for the payment of the debts incurred and bills outstanding contracted by the commission appointed under the provisions of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws one thousand three hundred six) entitled "An act to provide for the selection of a site and the erection of a State institution for the detention care and treatment of inebriates or persons habitually addicted to the use of alcoholic drink or intoxicating drugs to be called the State Institution for Inebriates and making an appropriation therefor" amongst said debts and bills being a claim of seventeen thousand and seventy-eight dollars and eighty-nine cents ($17,078.89) with interest for services rendered by the architect employed by said commission and a claim of fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500) for the compensation due to the clerk of the commission and the personal expenses of the members of said commission in attending meetings and performing the duties required by law said moneys to be paid from moneys heretofore appropriated to said commission for the construction and erection of the necessary buildings for the housing of the inmates and for the necessary administration buildings by the act approved the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws one thousand two hundred twelve) entitled "A supplement to an act approved the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirteen entitled 'An act to provide for the selection of a site and the erection of a State institution for the detention care and treatment of inebriates or persons habitually addicted to the use of alcoholic drink or intoxicating drugs to be called the State Institution for Inebriates and making an appropriation therefor' making an appropriation and providing for the admission of patients to said institution and providing for the payment of the costs and fees of hearings and of maintenance of patients by the respective counties"

No moneys shall be paid from said appropriation until the debts and bills in question have been adjusted and approved by the Auditor General the State Treasurer and the Attorney General.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1144, as follows:

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

RESOLUTION RECALLING FROM THE GOVERNOR SENATE BILL NO. 586.

Mr. BARR offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, May 15, 1923.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur) That Senate Bill No. 686 entitled "An Act relating to the registration of nurses by the State Board of Examiners for Registration of nurses and the issuance of a license to practice nursing" be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

BILL OVER IN ORDER.

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I ask that Senate Bill No. 101 on third reading, entitled:

An act for the registration and regulation of certain individuals and entities selling offering for sale or delivery soliciting subscription to or orders for or undertaking to dispose of inviting offers for or inquiries about or dealing in any manner in securities defined therein conferring powers and imposing duties on the Commissioner of Banking and otherwise providing for the administration of this act prescribing penalties and making an appropriation go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, as a matter of courtesy to the Senator from Indiana, and in order not to delay this bill, I would like to have permission of the Chair to say a few words on it.

The PRESIDENT. Permission is granted.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, if the Senator from Indiana and the Senate will turn to page 3, line 2, you will find that the word "is" is left out after the word "that". On page 4, line 7, No. 8—this is the portion that was discussed by the subcommittee, and while I intended to vote for the l I will have to point out the weakness of that clause un-ss it is stricken from the bill.

On page 5 I direct the Senator's attention to the fact that Section 4 is stricken from the bill, yet under (d) on page 5 reference is made thereto "except as provided in Section four".

On page 10, lines 7 and 8 the bill reads "he shall register the applicant and issue to him a registry certificate stating the principal place of issue to him".

On page 11 I direct the Senator's attention to the fact that the words "in other respect" should be stricken from the bill.

I further direct the attention of the Senator to the last word on page 11 "in" and the first three words in line 1, page 12, "all other respects". They should be stricken from the bill.

I also direct the Senator's attention to page 12, line 9, the words "of course" should be stricken from the bill.

I also direct the Senator's attention and the attention of the Senate to Section 13 of the Act. If any one in the Senate can explain to me what that section means I will be very much obligated for the courtesy.

I direct the Senator's attention to page 15 of the bill, line 6, in which the words "forty-eight hours" are used, while on the following page 16, in line 4 "forty-eight hours" is stricken from the bill and "seven days" is used, making the bill read so that it could not be understood and it could not pass the Attorney General's scrutiny.

I also direct the attention of the Senate to page 19, line 14 to the words "reasonable diligence". If that can be explained to the satisfaction of any one in the Senate or any one in legitimate business of selling or investing in bonds, I would like to have that done.

Mr. President, I direct the attention of the Senator from Indiana to these errors due to the fact that unless the amendments are offered the bill will be held up.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 316, entitled:

An Act to amend chapter seven of an act approved May fourteenth one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and twelve) entitled "An Act providing a system of government for boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs" by creating a Borough Planning Department defining its jurisdiction and extending the same so as to regulate the laying out and recording of plans of lots within the limits of the borough and for three miles beyond the borough limits and to regulate the making and use of certain public improvements until said plans are approved by said department and authorizing the exercise of the powers herein provided by a park or other municipal commission

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1037, (House Bill No. 428), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the twenty-first day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws two hundred sixty-eight) entitled "An Act relating to police pension funds in cities of the third class and directing such cities to appropriate certain moneys thereto" be recommitted to the Committee on Municipal Affairs.

Mr. STINEMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1165, entitled:

An Act to amend section four of an act approved March seventeenth (Pamphlet Laws thirty-two) entitled "An act authorizing the erection and construction by counties of memorial halls in memory of the soldiers sailors and marines of such counties providing for an election to determine whether such hall shall be erected providing for the purchase and condemnation of property for such purposes regulating the use of such halls and providing for the maintenance and care of the same by a board of control at the expense of the county"

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

hall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, this is an amendment to the Act of 1921, providing for memorial halls for soldiers and Philadelphia did not wish to have the Historical Society lodged in a memorial hall or victory hall, because we have our own Historical Society, and therefore there is an exception made to this bill that does not apply to the counties and cities of the first class. The other exception will enable the City of Philadelphia to have more than one room. The memorial hall provides for one room only and we wish to have more than one room. Those are the two amendments.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1167, entitled:

An Act to amend an act approved April nineteenth one thousand eight hundred ninety-five (Pamphlet Laws thirty-eight) entitled "An Act to regulate the erection of county buildings" by providing for the approval of plans of county buildings and the letting of contracts for the construction thereof by the body levying the taxes for general county purposes in certain counties

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I have been asked to explain this bill. It is this: that in Philadelphia the County Commissioners do not levy the taxes and in the erection of the proposed Memorial Victory Hall we offered an amendment which would enable the County of Philadelphia to have the plans and specifications approved by the body which levies the taxes, it made it City Council instead of the Court of Common Pleas.

The House met at 11:00 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (C. J. Goodnough), in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. B. Cox, offered the following prayer:

O Thou that sendest snow and rain from Heaven, that it may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater, we rejoice in the knowledge of Thy nature, that is not exhausted, though it continues to energize, that is never empty, though it continues to give; and we rejoice, our Father, in the relation and fellowship with Him who works and is never weary, who gives and is none the poorer for the giving. We pray that we may so fashion our lives that we may continue to draw from Thy invaluable, inexhaustible resources, elements of strength and wisdom and power that will enable us to discharge the duties devolving upon us, that we may meet with Thy divine approval and contribute to the welfare of our fellowmen.

To this end, we earnestly pray that Thou wouldst bless the Executive of this Commonwealth, his advisors, the Speaker of this House and each and every one who has to do with the affairs of this great State. We ask it in Jesus' name. Amen.

RESOLUTION.

RELATIVE TO MEMORIAL SERVICES IN HONOR OF LATE MEMBERS.

Mr. HEYBURN offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, May 15, 1923.

Resolved, That Tuesday afternoon, May twenty-second, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, at two o'clock, be fixed as a time and the Hall of the House of Representatives as a place, for holding memorial services in honor of the late Hon. Henry F Miller, a Member of the House of Representatives from Delaware County, in the session of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one;

Hon. Samuel A. Whitaker, from Chester County, a Member of the House of Representatives in the sessions of one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, and one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three; and late Hon, John M. Linn, and late Timothy McCarthy, members from Philadelphia in the session of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three.

Hon. Frank E. Korns, a member of the House of Representatives from Cambria County in the session of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three.

Resolved, That the use of the Hall of the House of Representatives be granted for the holding of said memorial services.

MOTION TO PLACE BILL ON CALENDAR.

Mr. HALL. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 482, (Senate Bill No. 142), file folio 105, entitled

A Supplement to the act approved the seventeenth day of June nineteen hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws one thousand and twelve) entitled "An Act regulating the business of loaning money in sums of three hundred ($300) dollars or less either with or without security to individuals pressed by lack of unds to meet immediate necessities fixing the rates of interest and charges therefor requiring the licensing of lenders and prescribing penalties for the violation of this act" as amended by the act of June fourth nineteen hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and seventy-five) entitled "An act to amend sections one two and three of the act approved the seventeenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws ten hundred and twelve) entitled 'An act regulating the business of loaning money in sums of three hundred ($300) dollars or less either with or without security to individuals pressed by lack of funds to meet immediate necessities fixing the rate of interest and charges therefor requiring the licensing of lenders and prescribing penalties for the violation of this act'" be placed upon the calendar, notwithstanding the negative recommendation of the Committee

Mr. EARLEY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HALL Mr. Speaker and members of the House, my purpose in making this motion is to have this bill placed upon the calendar so that it may be re-referred to the Committee on Judiciary General for the purpose of a hearing. I have spoken to the chairman of that committee, and he has no objection to that procedure.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The Speaker announced the ayes appeared to have it,

Whereupon a division was called for, and 45 members having voted in the affirmative, and 77 members having voted in the negative, the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. HARER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 36, file folio 6455, entitled:

An Act to regulate the practice of Chiropractic and to provide for the appointment and maintenance of the Board of Chiropractic Examiners To define the powers and duties of said Board of Chiropractic Examiners To provide for the examining and licensing of Chiropractors in this State and provide for penalties for the violation of this act was defeated on final passage on May 8, 1923, be reconsidered.

Miss BENTLEY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, this is a bill that we defeated on last Tuesday, known as the chiropractors' bill. Now, with all due respect to my colleague and friend from Philadelphia, Mr. Dunn, the sponsor of this bill, I hope that you will not vote to reconsider the bill. Not that I fear it might pass, but because we are only delaying the progres of the House as we are getting down into the closing hours of the session. Mr. Dunn, as sponsor of the bill and all those others who spoke in its behalf had a fair opportunity, and we, who oppose the bill, had likewise the same opportunity. Last Tuesday I was only too willing to have this bill go back to the Committee for the purpose of amendment, before the bill came out. This, the House saw fit to reject and the bill was voted on but did not receive its constitutional majority. This is one of the usual things that occur, when a bill is defeated, to again bring it to life by getting a majority of those present to vote for the reconsideration. I hope ladies and gentlemen of the House that you will not vote to reconsider it.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, my only purpose in asking that this bill be put on the calendar again is because people who are interested in it agree to all the amendments that the gentleman from Allegheny wanted to insert in the bill when it was on final passage on Tuesday night. When the bill is put back on the calendar, I propose to take it up with the chairman of the Public Health and Sanitation Committee, and then go over with him again these various amendments. If we agree on these amendments there is no difference between us, and I only ask that the bill be put on the calendar and then I will consult with the Chairman of the Public Health and Sanitation Committee to prove that we are fair and that we are just in this consideration. I feel we can come to some successful conclusion, whereby, these people might be properly regulated and licensed.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER announced the ayes appeared to have it,

Whereupon, a division was called for, and 84 members having voted in the affirmative and 34 members having voted in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 36, file folio 6455, be placed upon the postponed calendar.

Mr. LUCAS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 950, as follows:

An Act providing for the publication of the estimated cost of all public construction repair or maintenance work exceeding fifteen hundred dollars providing that the proper officers or agents of the Commonwealth and of every county city borough township school district or other political sub-division of the Commonwealth shall keep complete and accurate accounts of the cost of all such work providing for the furnishing of certified copies of such accounts and fixing penalties

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in all cases where the proper officer or officers (agent or agents) of the Commonwealth or of any county city borough township school district or other political sub-division of the Commonwealth shall determine that any public construction repair or maintenance work is necessary to be performed and may be performed according to law by day labor instead of by contract through competitive bidding an estimate of the cost thereof shall be made by him or them and if such estimate shall exceed the sum of fifteen hundred dollars ($1500) in the aggregate the total amount of such estimate shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county or counties in which the work is to be performed at least fifteen days before proceeding with the work Provided however That in all cases where it is now required that any county city borough township or school district publish such estimate under the provisions of any local law or ordinance no further publication shall be required under the provisions of this section

Section 2 That all such officers or agents of the Commonwealth or of any such political sub-divisions thereof under whose authority such public work is performed shall be required to keep and preserve a complete and accurate record of the cost of such work the said account shall show in all cases where the work is performed by the agents servants or employees of the Commonwealth or of the county city borough township school district or other political sub-division thereof in accurately tabulated form under appropriate heads the totals of all classes kinds and descriptions of work performed and of all materials used in such work and also the total cost of all materials supplies and labor furnished such work together with the cost of all superintendence the cost of engineering and all other expenses involved in the total cost of such public work including a charge for the proportion of the time of regularly employed public officials which may be devoted in any manner to such work in all cases where the work is performed by contract the account shall show the amounts paid the contractor for each class kind or description of work performed and materials furnished

Section 3 The records and accounts required to be kept by the provisions of this act shall be open to the inspection of the public at all reasonable times Certified copies thereof shall be furnished to any citizens of the state upon demand being made and upon payment of a reasonable fee for the transcribing and certifying of the same

Section 4 If any public officer or agent included in this act shall wilfully neglect to keep the records or accounts required to be kept by this act or if any such officer or agent shall wilfully neglect to make any proper entry in the records or accounts required to be kept or if any such public officer shall wilfully in order to circumvent the provisions of this act divide any public work under his control into small units which would be considered economically unsound from an engineering standpoint if the work was performed by contract instead of by the agents servants or employees of the Commonwealth or of any political sub-division thereof the same shall be deemed a misdemeanor in office and in addition to the other penalties for such offences he shall upon conviction thereof be deemed incapable of holding longer his said office

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 952, as follows:

An Act to carry into effect section eleven of article one of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by designating the manner the courts and the cases in which suits may be brought against the Commonwealth defining the procedure in such cases and providing for the payment of judgment interest and cost by the Commonwealth

Whereas As section eleven of article one of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania provides that "Suits may be brought against the Commonwealth in such manner in such courts and in such cases as the legislature may by law direct" and

Whereas The supreme court has declared that special acts of assembly authorizing suits to be brought against the Commonwealth are unconstitutional and

Whereas The Commonwealth has recently by divers acts of assembly and in the exercise of its sovereignty taken over and assumed extensive public works heretofore constructed by counties cities boroughs and townships which municipal districts are and have hitherto been liable upon contracts as well as for negligence and

Whereas Numerous hardships have been inflicted upon citizens of the Commonwealth by reason of their inability to have their claims against the Commonwealth heard and determined

Now Therefore to carry out and provide full force and effect to said provisions of the constitution and to provide a general system for the bringing of suits against the Commonwealth

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That suits in assumpsit upon contracts express or implied and suits in trespass for negligence growing out of the construction operation or maintenance of any public work building or highway may be brought against the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in the court of common pleas in the county in which the seat of government is located and such suits may be prosecuted to final determination subject to appeal in the same manner and within the same limitations as to time as in the case of suits in assumpsit and trespass between individuals nothing contained in this section however shall be construed to repeal or impair the provisions of the Workmen's Compensation acts of one thousand nine hundred and fifteen

Section 2 No action shall be instituted nor cause maintained under the provisions of this act which shall have arisen prior to the date of the approval of this act

Section 3 Process in actions commenced under the provisions of this act shall be served upon the Attorney-General or any of his deputies in the same manner and with like effect as in the case of suits between individuals the Attorney-General or any of his deputies are authorized to accept service of any process in any such suit against the Commonwealth the practice and proceedings shall conform in all respects to the laws of this Commonwealth and the rules of court regulating similar cases between individuals

Section 4 In all suits brought under the provisions of this act it shall be incompetent to maintain as a defense that the Commonwealth is a sovereign power and is immune from liability

Section 5 In all cases where final judgment is obtained against the Commonwealth the record of such judgment shall be certified to the Auditor General who shall thereupon draw his warrant upon the State Treasurer for the payment of such judgment interest and costs all such judgments shall be paid out of the moneys appropriated by the General Assembly from time to time for the payment of such judgments

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1521, (Senate Bill No. 1134), entitled:

An Act to authorize the Department of Forestry to offer and to pay rewards for evidence sufficient to convict anyone maliciously setting forest fire and to authorize paymentof such rewards to Local Forest Fire Wardens under certain conditions

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 232.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 11, 1923

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Ladies and Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 232, entitled "An act to amend chapter eleven, article two, of the act approved the fourteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred and forty), entitled 'An act concerning townships and revising, amending and consolidating the law relating thereto' ".

The first section is nearly like the present law. The second section is new. It requires owners of land abutting on the highways within townships to cut or mow all small trees (excepting ornamental or fruit trees), brush, briers and weeds from the space lying between the beaten track and the outer edge of the authorized roadway at least once during the months of either June, July and August each year and to remove the debris. Upon failure of the owner to do so, the work is to be done at his expense.

Blackberry, elderberry and hazlenut bushes alongside many country roads, which, in addition to doing no harm, are producers of food. Many small trees are harmless in every way and often ornamental.

If the cutting were required to prevent the spread of harmful species of vegetables, or to protect the roadways, or prevent fire hazard, it would be more defensible. As it is, it compels the overworked farmer at the busiest season to do work for purposes apparently mainly intended to help out the appearance of the highways. He should be allowed to use his own judgment outside of cutting thistles and other harmful weeds which endanger other farm lands.

For these reasons the Bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

And the question being,

Shall the bill become a law, the objections of His Excellency the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

A motion was made by Mr. WALKER.

That the question, together with the further consideration of the communication, be laid upon the table.

Which was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 606.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 10, 1923.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Ladies and Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 606, entitled "An act to further amend an act, approved the third day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five (Pamphlet Laws one hundred and thirty), entitled 'An act authorizing the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to rebuild county bridges over navigable rivers and other streams which have been declared public highways by act of assembly where such bridges have been destroyed by flood, fire or other casualty; providing for the appointment of viewers and inspectors and the payment of the cost of rebuilding such bridges'; providing for the rebuilding of decayed and unsafe bridges and certain bridges on State highways".

The Act of June 3, 1895, as amended by the Act of April 21, 1903, which this Bill amends, requires the Commonwealth to rebuild all county bridges across navigable rivers and such other streams as have declared to be public highways where any such bridge is carried away or destroyed by flood or wind storm.

This Bill extends the obligation of the Commonwealth in the matter or rebuilding bridges in two particulars:

1. The number of bridges which the Commonwealth would be required to rebuild is increased by adding all bridges not exceeding 500 feet in length on or connecting portions of any State highway which are over navigable rivers and such other streams as have been declared public highways.

2. By increasing the causes for which the Commonwealth would be required to repair such bridges to include all those that become so decayed or unsafe as to require rebuilding.

This means a very greatly increased liability of the State for the rebuilding of bridges. At the present time the State is not responsible for the rebuilding of any county bridge except such as are destroyed by flood or wind storm nor is the State responsible for the rebuilding of any bridge other than a county bridge which is destroyed by flood or wind storm. The State Highway Department advises that there are 1,655 county bridges on State highways, which would equal approximately 140,000 feet or 27 miles of bridge. It is safe to say that one-half of these bridges are over streams that are navigable or have been declared public highways by act of Assembly. This Bill would then add at least 13½ miles of bridge, for the repair of which the State would become liable, not only when they are destroyed by flood or wind storm, but whenever they become decayed or unsafe so as to require rebuilding. The Highway Department estimates the cost of this work for the first year at $4,800,000.

In addition thereto it would place the same responsibility upon the State for rebuilding all bridges that are not county bridges, and which do not exceed 500 feet in length and connect portions of any State highway, and which are erected over navigable rivers or streams declared public highways by act of Assembly. The State Highway Department estimates that this latter class would be six times as great as the former.

This would be a liability which the Commonwealth in the present state of its finances can not undertake.

The sponsor of this Bill presented, and the House passed, a Resolution to recall for the purpose of amendment, in which Resolution the Senate failed to concur, and the time limit being about to expire on the Bill, it is necessary that action be taken.

For these reasons the Bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

And the question being,

Shall the bill become a law the objections of His Excellency the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

A motion was made by Mr. GELDER.

That the question, together with the further consideration of the communication, be laid upon the table.

Which was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 617.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 11, 1923

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Ladies and Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 617, entitled "An Act to amend clauses (b) and (c) of section fifty-six of an act approved the seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws four hundred and forty-seven) entitled 'An Act relating to the administration and distribution of the estates of decedents and of minors and of trust estates including the appointment, bonds, rights, powers, duties, liabilities, accounts, discharge and removal of executors, administrators, guardians and trustees herein designated as fiduciaries; the administration and distribution of the estates of presumed decedents, widow's and children's exemptions, debts of decedents, rents of real estate as assets for payment thereof, the lien thereof, sales and mortgages of real estate for the payment thereof, judgments and executions therefor and the discharge of real estate from the lien thereof, contracts of decedents for the sale or purchase of real estate, legacies, including legacies charged on land the discharge of residuary estates and of real estate from the lien of legacies and other charges; the appraisement of real estate devised at a valuation; the ascertainment of the curtilage of dwelling houses or other buildings devised; the abatement and survival of actions and the substitution of executors and administrators therein, and suits against fiduciaries, investments by fiduciaries, the organization of corporations to carry on the business of decedents, the audit and review of accounts of fiduciaries, refunding bonds, transcripts to the court of common pleas of balances due by fiduciaries the rights, powers and liabilities of nonresident and foreign fiduciaries, the appointment, bonds, rights, powers, duties and liabilities of trustees durante absentia, the recording and registration of decrees, reports and other proceedings, and the fees therefor, appeals in certain cases and also generally dealing with the jurisdiction, powers and procedure of the orphans' court in all matters relating to fiduciaries concerned with the estates of decedents', so as to permit the orphans' court in its discretion to permit a corporation appointed as trustee in the place of an executor or executors, trustee or trustees dying, renouncing, dismissed or refusing to act to give its own bond without surety."

The Commissioner of Banking and also the Department of the Attorney General feel that this Bill ought to be vetoed for the following reasons:

1. It provides broadly that any corporation, whether in Pennsylvania or not, authorized by its charter, or by law, to act in a fiduciary capacity need not give any security except its own bond.

2. The National Banks which have fiduciary powers are under surveillance of the Federal Banking authorities, and according to law, may now give their own bonds without further security. Our citizens are protected by the diligence and good faith of the Federal Banking authorities.

3. Our State created banks and trust companies may under present law give their own bonds without security and the protection of our citizens comes from the diligence and good faith of our Banking Department.

4. If any other corporations besides those mentioned above either are (or should become) by their charters or by law empowered to act in a fiduciary capacity they would by this amendment be allowed to give their own bonds without security.

In the last mentioned case there is no responsible Governmental officer or body to discover when corporations, other than banks and trust companies are insolvent or are in danger of becoming so.

I am not willing that the citizens of the State should be exposed to any danger or loss through the insolvency of a fiduciary corporation, neither can I see any reason for passing this Bill since all our banks which have fiduciary powers and our trust companies are already allowed to give their own bond without further security.

For these reasons the Bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

And the question being,

Shall the bill become a law, the objections of His Excellency the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

A motion was made by Mr. CRAIG,

That the question, together with the further consideration of the communication, be laid upon the table.

Which was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 389.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 7, 1923.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Ladies and Gentlemen: I return herewith, without approval, House Bill No: 389, entitled "An act to amend chapter six, article twenty, section three, of an act, approved the fourteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and twelve), entitled 'An act providing a system of government for boroughs and revising, amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs' ".

The section of the above Act which this Bill amends provides that boroughs may license foreign dealers in merchandise, or their agents, temporarily engaged in selling merchandise therein, but that such license fee shall not exceed the amount imposed on resident merchants engaged in like business.

This amendment divides such foreign dealers and their agents into two classes:

(a) Those having no permanent place of business within the State.

(b) Those having a permanent place of business in the State but outside the borough granting the license.

It then provides that the license fee required to be paid by those who come within Class (b) shall not exceed the amount imposed upon resident merchants engaged in like business.

The clear purpose of the act is to permit a borough to charge a greater license fee to residents of other States than to those of this State, where otherwise both belong to the same class.

If this Act levied a greater license fee on a foreign dealer than on a domestic dealer within the same class, or if an ordinance were passed doing so, the Act and ordinance would be unconstitutional, as violating Section 2 of Article IV of the United States Constitution, which provides that "The citizens of each State shall be entitled to all privileges and Immunities of Citizens in the several States", and also of the Fourteenth Amendment to the same Constitution, which provides, inter alia, that "No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States".

If an ordinance passed pursuant to the express authority of an Act of Assembly would be unconstitutional, then the Act, in so far as it authorizes such an ordinance, is unconstitutional.

If this Bill had any purpose in addition to the above, it might be saved for that purpose, but it does not have.

It may be said that the borough need not, under this Bill, discriminate between the foreign and domestic dealer, but that would be a refinement that can not avail here. The only additional authority this Bill gives over the present Act would be unconstitutional if exercised.

For these reasons the Bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

And the question being,

Shall the bill become a law, the objections of His Excellency the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

A motion was made by Mr. DAVID J. JONES.

That the question with the further consideration of the communication, be laid upon the table.

Which was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 1007.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 10, 1923.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Ladies and Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1007, entitled "An act to amend an act, approved the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws six hundred and sixty-one), entitled "An act relating to the maintenance of insane, feeble-minded and other persons confined in the various institutions of the Commonwealth, fixing liability for their support, providing for the collection of the moneys due the Commonwealth thereof, and for proceedings relating thereto' ".

This Bill was drawn apparently to help counties and poor districts to obtain their pro rata share of any insufficient estate of the inmate of a State-owned home, hospital, asylum or other institution for a longer time than has heretofore been legal under the six-year statute of limitations. Under the law no limitation affects the rights of the Commonwealth to recover all cost of maintenance of such inmates for any length of time in the past.

The Bill falls far short of its intended purpose because it does not change the statute of limitations or in any way make it legal for the county or poor district to collect more than six years back maintenance charges.

If a distributor of the estate of such an inmate liable for maintenance charges did his duty under the old law or under this Bill if it became a law, he would consider the claim of the county or poor district to be limited to six years, and the claim of the State to cover the entire period of the maintenance of the inmate, no matter how many years.

and thus under either the old law or this Bill he would distribute in exactly the same manner, thus bringing it to pass that in the absence of ignorance on the part of the distributor this Bill would be of no help to the county or poor district.

If, however, the distributor were ignorant of the statute of limitations, he would proportion the funds of an insufficient estate between the Commonwealth and the county or poor district at variance with the legal rights of the two claimants.

This Bill does nothing but forbid the State (presumably the representative of the State) to remind the distributor of the legal status of the claimants. The injustice of this prohibition against informing the distributor of the legal right of the Commonwealth is even greater because it requires the person obligated to support the rights of the State to stand by and see them ignored.

Further, the prohibition is ineffective in case the representative of the State should choose to inform the distributor of the legal status of the claimants with regard to the statute of limitations. Such a disclosure on his part made frankly or indirectly would be contrary to the behest of this Bill, but it would not be punishable by any provision of the Bill.

Therefore, feeling that this would be a bad law in principle, and that if the counties or poor districts should be made free from the statute of limitations, a clear and decisive act should be passed for that purpose, I do not believe that this Bill should become a law.

For these reasons the Bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

And the question being,

Shall the bill become a law, the objections of His Excellency the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

A motion was made by Mr. JOHN G. MARSHALL,

That the question, together with the further consideration of the communication, be laid upon the table.

Which was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 1078.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 10, 1923.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Ladies and Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1078, entitled "An act to amend section twelve of the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws six hundred and thirty-nine) entitled 'An act relating to the right to practice medicine and surgery in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and providing a Bureau of Medical Education and Licensure as a bureau of the Department of Public Instruction and means and methods whereby the right to practice medicine and surgery and any of its minor branches may be obtained and exemptions therefrom and providing for an appropriation to carry out the provisions of said act and providing for revocation or suspension of licenses given by said bureau and providing penalties for violation thereof and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent therewith' providing for re-hearings in cases where licenses have been suspended or revoked and for the reinstatement of licensees in certain cases".

This Bill is intended to permit the reinstatement of the right to practice medicine to those whose license has been revoked or suspended. After providing for a hearing in the nature of an appeal from any former action it provides that upon such rehearing a hearing de novo shall be held, and then it proceeds to permit a modification of the action at the first hearing without any further hearing. The procedure is evidently confused. In addition to this the Bill also makes it mandatory upon the Bureau of Medical Education and Licensure that it reinstate a licensee whose license has been revoked or suspended and who shall show conclusively that for a period of five years he has discontinued the habit or practices which caused the suspension or revocation of his license. This would obviously not be a wise provision. The offender might still be imprisoned for the offense for which his license was revoked or suspended and yet the Bureau would be bound to reinstate him.

For these reasons the Bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

And the question being,

Shall the bill become a law, the objections of His Excellency the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

A motion was made by Mr. STEEDLE,

That the question, together with the further consideration of the communication, be laid upon the table.

Which was agreed to.

SENATE MESSAGE.

AMENDED SENATE BILL NONCURRED IN BY SENATE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has noncurred in the amendments made by the House of Representatives to Senate Bill numbered and entitled as follows:

SENATE BILL No. 435.

An Act to further amend section three hundred eighty-six clause four of the act approved the fourteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred seventeen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred forty) entitled "An act concerning townships and revising amending and consolidating the law relating thereto"

Mr. GELDER. Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the Roads Committee, I move that the House insist upon its amendments non-concurred in by the Senate.

Mr. WELLS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO JOINT SESSION.

Mr. KELLY offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and adopted.

In the House of Representatives May 15th, 1923.

Whereas, This is the day fixed by the concurrent resolution for the convening of the joint session in the Hall of the House, at One O'Clock P. M.

Therefore, Be it Resolved, that the Speaker appoint three Members of the House to wait upon the Senate and escort them to the Hall of the House for the said joint meeting.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE.

The SPEAKER. The chair appoints as such committee the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Kelly; the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Armstrong; and the gentleman from Clearfield, Mr. Charles B. Jones.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. JEFFERSON W. SMITH.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 345, entitled:

An act Imposing a State license tax upon public slot machines used for vending weighing telephon or other service amusement entertainment or any other purpose imposing certain powers and duties upon the Auditor General prescribing penalties for the violation fo the provisions of this act and providing for the confiscation of certain machines

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JEFFERSON W. SMITH. Mr. Speaker this bill is part of the laborious work of the Ways and Means Committee which has been working for the last four months, but unfortunately the greater portion of the structure which was erected by that Committee was wiped away by the cyclone that hit the House last night, but it did leave the foundation of that house in this bill, which was the first bill reported by the Ways and Means Committee for the purpose of raising some revenue for the state of Pennsylvania. Now this bill provides for what? It merely states that public slot machines of which there are many hundreds of thousands in the state of Pennsylvania, shall be taxed. Probably not one-fifth of the inventors of these machines are residents of the state of Pennsylvania and most of the agents are residents of other states. In many of the states of the union slot machines for commodities and amusements are licensed. This bill simply licenses those machines in this state. The collection of the license fees will not cost the state a very large amount of money because it provides that the licenses shall be issued by the Auditor General. We are all aware that in public places there are weighing machines, candy machines, and numerous machines, and the owners of these machines derive all the profit from the dimes and pennies gathered from the general public and they pay no license to the state for the permission of exposing them to the public. I believe without exaggeration that if this bill were enacted into law that the revenues derived biennually from public slot machines scattered throughout the state of Pennsylvania would amount to in the neighborhood of one million dollars, and as it is clearly evidenced that this is the last bill that will appear from the Ways and Means Committee, I think this bill should pass. The public will not be directly taxed by it and the only people to be taxed are those who profit by the exposure of these machines in public places. I believe that should be taken into consideration by the members of this House. This bill calls for a license fee of $1.00 for every automatic machine from 1c to 5c, and a fee of $2.00 for every machine from 5¢ upwards. I believe this is a just tax inasmuch as the profits derived from these slot machines run as high as fifty, seventy-five and one hundred percent. As I said before, I hope the House will consider this bill in the manner in which I have offered it.

Mr. CHAPLIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Jefferson W. Smith, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JEFFERSON W. SMITH. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHAPLIN. Section 2 of this bill provides as follows:

Section 2 An annual State license tax is hereby imposed upon all public slot machines except such as are maintained without profit to the owner lessee or possessor thereof as follows (a) On all public slot machines in which coins of the denomination of one cent or of five cents or both can be dropped or inserted the sum of one dollar (b) On all public slot machines in which coins of the denomination of five cents and over can be dropped or inserted or in which only coins of a denomination greater than five cents can be dropped or inserted the sum of two dollars

Will that apply to street cars, in the case where a passenger gets on a street car and puts the fare in the box?

Mr. JEFFERSON W. SMITH. Not at all.

Mr. STOFFLET. Mr. Speaker, I have an interest in this bill to this extent: The Dixie drinking cup is manufactured in my own town. That concern employs 400 girls and 80 men. They have one of the finest manufacturing plants in the country. They came there about 4 years ago and during the war years they were fairly prosperous but at the present time those two boys are skating on thin ice, and if this bill passes it will mean $15,000 a year to them in the state of Pennsylvania alone. If another state passes a similar bill it will break that concern. I wanted the sponsor of this bill to amend it by cutting out the towel machine and the drinking cup. These two things are public utilities, practically demanded by the State Board of Health, and there is no reason why they should be included in this measure. I am not opposed to placing a license or tax on weighing machines and other non-essentials, but I do not think this House should pass this bill. I do not mean to say that the manufacturers of the Dixie Drinking Cup and towels are philanthropists. They are in business for profit, but at the same time they have to do with sanitary conditions in the state, and I think this measure should be defeated.

Mr. JEFFERSON W. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, in reply to my good friend and colleague from Northampton, I wish to state that with relation to the Dixie Cup, those machines are placed out in the rotunda and at other public places, and it is necessary to insert a penny to get a cup. It was my good fortune this morning to inquire from the Superintendent of Public Grounds as to the revenue the state got from the Dixie cup machine, and he told me that there was 33 1-3 percent profit on them. The state owns these machines and the state buys the cups. In a great many other places throughout the state they are making a like profit of 33 1-3 percent out of these drinking cup machines.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Less than the majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the bill falls.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been caled up from the postponed calendar by Mr. MOFFATT,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 819, entitled:

An Act to amend section six of the act approved the third day of May one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws one hundred and thirty-eight) entitled "An act relating to the appointment of persons to the fire department in cities of the third class constituting a civil service board in relation thereto providing for and regulating examinations the manner of appointments and the manner and power or removal of employes of said department and providing a method for fixing compensation of a secretary"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. MOFFATT. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk then read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 1, page 2, line 16, by inserting after the word "fined" the word "or"

Amend section 1, page 2, line 19, by inserting after the word "them" the following: "Provided however, That said superintendent of said department may for misconduct or violation as aforesaid suspend any employee of said fire department for a period of ten days with or without pay without preferring charges and without a hearing of council and"

Amend section 1, page 2, line 19, by inserting after the word "Provided" the word "further"

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

APPOINTMENT OF MEMORIAL COMMITTEE.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. Speaker, in pursuance of the memorial resolution adopted by this House, I move that a committee of five members of the House be appointed by the Speaker.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The Chair appoints as such committee the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Heyburn; the gentleman from Chester, Mr. Long; the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Horne; the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Golder; and the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Whiteman.

SENATE RECEIVED BY HOUSE TO MEET IN JOINT SESSION.

The Sergeant at arms announced the return to the Hall of the House of the Committee appointed on the part of the House to escort the members of the Senate to the Hall of the House.

Mr. KELLY. Mr. Speaker, your committee appointed to escort the Senate to the Hall of the House has performed that duty and presents to you the honorable body of the Senate.

The SPEAKER. The Committee is discharged with thanks. The Senators wil be seated. The President of the Senate is invited to preside over the joint session, and the President pro tempore is invited to a seat at the desk.

JOINT SESSION.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR DAVID J. DAVIS presiding.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR DAVIS. The Assembly will be in order.

Mr. WOODWARD offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and adopted.

Resolved, That in accordance with the provisions of section two of the act approved the seventh day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, entitled "An Act creating a Legislative Reference Bureau, providing for the election of a Director by the General Assembly, designating the officers and employees of such Bureau, defining their duties, fixing their salaries, abolishing the present Legislative Reference Bureau and making an appropriation," the Senate and House of Representatives in joint convention assembled elect James N. Moore as Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau.

OATH OF OFFICE ADMINISTERED TO MR. JAMES N. MOORE.

At the request of the President Mr. James N. Moore, the duly elected Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau, presented himself at the bar of the House and the oath of office, as required by law, was administered to him by the President.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR DAVIS. The duly elected Director has presented the following, which will be read by the Clerk:

Mr. President and Members of the General Assembly: On behalf of myself, Mr. Fertig and the employees of the Bureau, I desire to thank each one of you for passing the bill requested and sponsored by Senator Woodward, and for the honor which you have conferred upon me in my election as Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau, which now, for the first time, becomes solely a unit of the Legislative Branch of the State Government. I wish to assure the Members of the General Assembly that the Bureau will continue to function as efficiently as heretofore, and in addition to its legislative service, will gladly render such assistance to the Executive and other Departments as provided for in said act.

In accordance with the Act of Assembly approved the seventh day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, I desire to announce that I have reappointed the present staff in the Bureau, namely:

Assistant Director, John H. Fertig, Pottsville, Schuylkill County.
Chief Compiler, S. Edward Hannestad, Millersburg, Dauphin County.
Compiler and Bill Drafter, Robert S. Frey, York, York County.
Compiler and Bill Reading Clerk, Burt R. Glidden, Lancaster, Lancaster County.
Messenger & File Clerk, William J. Marks, Harrisburg, Dauphin County.
Chief Clerk, E. Grace Crownshield, Harrisburg, Dauphin County.
Reference Librarian, Irma A. Watts, Harrisburg, Dauphin County.
Stenographer, May B. Richter, Dauphin County.
Stenographer, Helen R. Ard, Harrisburg, Dauphin County.
Stenographer, Anna M. Aikens, Perry County.

There is a vacancy in the position of Search Clerk, due to the death of Carrison C. Breisch, during this present session. Owing to the reduction of three thousand dollars in the appropriation for the next fiscal biennium, which reduction was requested to be in accord with the policy of the Executive, this position can not be filled until the beginning of the fiscal year 1924-25.

There remain in addition on the pay roll of the Bureau the following temporary session appointees:

Assistant Bill Book Clerk, George Runkel, Jr., Harrisburg, Dauphin County.
Stenographer, Jane Houston, Carlisle, Cumberland County.

These positions will cease between this date and the end of the session.

The Director acknowledges his indebtedness to Mr. S. Edward Moore, who has furnished to the Bureau the record of House actions required to keep the House Bill Book of the Bureau properly posted.

ADJOURNMENT OF JOINT SESSION.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I move that the joint session do now adjourn.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR DAVIS. The Senators will proceed to the Senate chamber to continue the business of the calendar.

SPEAKER C. J. GOODNOUGH IN THE CHAIR.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. JOSEPH MARCUS.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1149 (Senate Bill No. 346), entitled:

An Act authorizing the sheriffs of the several counties of this Commonwealth to organize themselves into a State Association for the purpose of holding annual meetings to secure more uniformity and co-operation in the conduct of their offices and providing for the payment of certain expenses in connection with such meetings by the various counties

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. JOSPH MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. JOSEPH MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information

The Clerk then read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 2, page 2, line 8, by inserting after the word "Association" the following: "but not in excess of fifty dollars in any one year".

Amend section 2, page 2, line 11, by striking out the word "four" and inserting in lieu thereof "three"

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee on Conference.

Mr. SHAMBACH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the chairman of the House Committee on this report.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Whiteman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WHITEMAN. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SHAMBACH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire from the gentleman from Westmoreland as to what is the amount of the hunter's license fee, as contained in this report?

Mr. WHITEMAN. $1.25.

Mr. SHAMBACH. What is the amount that is set aside for game propogation?

Mr. WHITEMAN. One-fifth of the receipts.

Mr. SHAMBACH. Twenty percent?

Mr. WHITEMAN. Yes.

Mr. SHAMBACH. Did it not seem to the members of this Committee to be out of proportion for any public utilities to expend 80 percent in overhead expenses and to apply only 20 percent in the purchase of game and in propagation?

Mr. WHITEMAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to say in answer to the gentleman's interrogation, that while the amount specifically designated is one-fifth, as a matter of fact the Game Commission spends much more than that amount annually in the propogation and purchase of game, so the conferees felt it was unwise to tie the hands of the Game Commission to a larger amount than one-fifth, because of the fact that the game sellers in other states, knowing that the Game Commission would have a larger amount to spend, would be in the position to put up the price and compel the Game Commission to pay it, and the committee thought it unwise to tie the hands of the Game Commission in this particular. I might say that the gentleman's interrogation contains a wrong implication, and he is trying to give to this House the intimation that the Game Commission has so much of an overhead, but if he and the members of this House will examine the Game Commission's annual report they will find that that is not the case, that this Game Commission is operating with a very small overhead expense. The gentleman can find the financial statement for the year 1922 printed, and it will show him that the overhead is exceedingly small for an organization that conducts so much work as this.

Mr. SHAMBACH. I would like to know in the last ten years what percentage has been expended for the propogation of game. That seems to be a pertinent question?

Mr. WHITEMAN. Mr. Speaker, I am not sufficiently familiar with the books of the Game Commission for the last ten years to answer the gentleman's question. I would say that every sportsman knows, and every member of the House knows, that a very large proportion of the Game Commission's receipts have been expended for the purchasing and propogating and distributing of fish and game. I think the gentleman himself knows that.

Mr. SHAMBACH. Mr. Speaker, in view of the fact that we cannot get any absolute figures on the question, and knowing that a large number of hunters in Pennsylvania feel that they are not getting the expenditures for game propogation that they should, I shall have to voice the sentiment of the sportsmen of this class and vote no on this bill.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, the two principal objections against this bill, which were in it last week when it was under consideration, are still in the bill. Now the first one is the raising of the hunter's license fee from $1.00 to $1.25, an increase of 25 percent. Now last night this House went on record as voting down all tax bills yet here we are this morning raising the license fee from $1.00 to $1.25. Now I agree that this may be satisfactory to a large number of the organized sportsmen of the state, but we must not forget the fact that for every organized sportsman of the state, there are at least two dozen unorganized sportsmen in the state .

The organized sportsman of the state always have their say and have a voice in the making of legislation of this sort, but the unorganized sportsmen are not represented here and they have nobody here practically to protect their interests. I feel that the interest of the unorganized sportsman, the ordinary fellow, the farmer, the working man and the small business men, in the interest of these people, we should vote down this bill. Now, in my own county, as I said last week, they will collect from sixteen to eighteen thousand dollars every year by this bill. And what are we getting? We have never gotten even a drop in the bucket during the last ten years. From what I understand they wanted to make the fee $1.50, and they compromised on $1.25. Next year it will be $1.50 then $2.00 and by and by, it will be up to $5.00, and that will mean ultimately that we are going to eliminate the little fellow and will make a special privilege out of this sporting business in Pennsylvania. They have agreed to spend 20 percent of this money in the propogation of game. When this hunter's license law was first enacted, it was distinctly promised and understood that this money or the greater part of it, or the bulk of it, was to be used for the propogation of game, so that our hunters would have something when they actually did go out to hunt. They come here and say that 20 percent of it shall be expended for the propogation of game, leaving 80 percent for overhead expenses. I leave it to you, are we willing to do this? Are we willing to place this House on record as a 20 percent House, or place this Legislature on record as a 20 percent legislature, or as a legislature we stand for 20 percent expenditures and 80 percent overhead? If you are willing to vote for a measure of that kind, it is your privilege to do so, but I for one shall voice my emphatic protest against legislation of tnis character.

Mr. EACHES. Mr. Speaker, as a member of the Conference Committee I want to call your attention to the facts, to see whether the Game Committee has not been fair. Ever since the organization of this House, this Committee has been working faithfully, and many many hours have we spent trying to draw up some bill that would be a compromise, we might say in a way, in this great state. Now the people in the northern part were not willing to go along with the people in the southern part, and the people in the western part would not go along with the people in the eastern part of the state. We could not come together properly as a Game Committee of the House, so it seemed to devolve upon the speaker of the House to appoint a conference committee On that conference committee, there was Senator Clark of Indiana county, Senator Quigley of Clinton county, and Senator Buckman of Bucks county. From the House of Representatives there was Representative Myers, Representative Whiteman and myself. Last week we came together and we were in session until away after midnight over in the Senate. We agreed to go 50-50 one the proposition. The subject was so divided up in the committee that we thought we could not reach an agreement on the objectionable features. After sometime, the members of the House Committee got more than they really expected, more than we got in our own committee, and I am asking you here today to support this report. I believe it is the fairest proposition that was ever presented to the House in the line of Game legislation.

Mr. WHITEMAN. Mr. Speaker I am not going to take up any time to go into details, but I simply point out to you that the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Eaches, represents what I think should be the attitude of this house upon this important measure. The gentleman from Berks himself was opposed to the $1.25 fee, but in order to reach a compromise and in order to save what is a very meritorious measure, he went along with the members of the Senate committee, as did the rest of the supporters of the particular proposition, because the Senate committee had gone along with us upon so many other propositions which we knew this House favored. I do not intend to go into the details of the conference report. I simply plead with you men of the House to stand by an honest work, an honest effort to humanize and to make more comprehensive the game laws of the State of Pennsylvania. I simply ask you, as the majority members of the two committees, I simply ask you to stand behind the Game Commission, the commission which won the approval of the Pinchot investigating committee in every way the commission whose members for years have been giving their time without any renumeration whatever in trying to build up the State of Pennsylvania as a State for game, as a State in which the hunters could have sport, and as a State to which all other states in the Union are pointed to as an example to be followed in the protection and propagation of game. Men, this is a case where we are asked to stand by our own commission, the commission which we have created as a part of the government, and I think that in all fairness and in deference to their honest efforts to give us a concrete, composite game code that is human in many respects in which the old law was not human we should stand by them upon this occasion.

Mr. CHAPLIN. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, this bill, as amended, gives the sportsmen of Pennsylvania an opportunity to pay an additional fifteen cents. There isn't any reason why the members of this House should object to such a comparitively small increase in the hunters' present license fund. It is absolutely necessary, for the very reason that under the Governor's administration code it was compulsory on the part of the Game Commission to pay for all of the printing and the advertising of that department, a large part of which will be consumed for that purpose. I feel certain that the sportsmen of Pennsylvania will be delighted to have the pleasure of paying the fifteen cents, or even more. You ladies and gentlemen know that if a man pays a dollar to go out gunning and doesn't have the opportunity to shoot at some game he would much prefer paying twenty-five cents more and know that the State Game Commission of Pennsylvania is continuously purchasing game and planting it in the various sanctuaries throughout this Commonwealth. We have one of the greatest sportsmen's organizations in Cambria county that there is in Pennsylvania, and I might say, one of the largest, and they are unanimously for the increase in this bill. Now, this additional fifteen cents that is asked for here is only one of the little minor changes that is in this general game code. Under the old law, if a man would go out gunning without a hunting license and a game warden or an officer would some up to him in an attempt to arrest him, he could say that he wasn't out hunting game, that he was out hunting foxes or something else. Under this present bill, as amended, the man must have a license before he can go into the woods. Now, you all know that our non-resident hunters' license law in Pennsylvania is the cheapest of any other, almost, in the United States, and I don't know of a state in the United States that is spending more money for the propagation of protection of game than Pennsylvania is. In our surrounding states here, a non-resident license costs you from twenty to fifty dollars. In Pennsylvania you only pay ten dollars. The Game Commission has incorporated some of the amendments, and one is that the non-resident license fund shall be raised five dollars, which is right and proper; and I feel certain that the sportsmen of Pennsylvania will concur in the opinion of the Game Commission. Now there are many others. The penalty under the present law for a man who fails to sign his license receipt that he receives when he gets his license is twenty dollars. The Game Commission now has reduced that to five dollars, leaving it simply as a general reminder to the gunner that when he takes out a resident hunter's license, that it is his duty to sign it so that the crooked gunner may not take another man's license and go out into the woods, knowing that if the game warden comes up to him it will be necessary to again sign his name so that he may compare it. It is the purpose of the Game Commission to make it easier, not only for the sportsmen but for the department.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk return the same to the Senate with the information that the House has passed the same without amendment.

RESOLUTION RECALLING HOUSE BILL NO. 225 FROM THE GOVERNOR.

Mr. VAN ALEN offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, May 15, 1923.

Resolved, (if the Senate concur) That House Bill No. 225 entitled, "A supplement to an act approved the twenty-seventh day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, (Pamphlet Laws one thousand one hundred and seventy-three) entitled 'An act constituting a commission to make an investigation of the battlefields of France and Belgium, and to select points for the erection of monuments and markers of appropriate design to commemorate the achievements of Pennsylvania soldiers during the World War, defining the powers and duties of the commission, and making an appropriation', continuing said commission, providing for the erection of certain memorials in France and Belgium, and making an appropriation", be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. HENDERSON.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1450 (Senate Bill No. 497), entitled:

An Act relating to county bridges authorizing counties to issue and sell bonds for the erection thereof and providing for the division of the cost of construction and erection of joint county bridges and the collection of tolls thereon

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. HENDERSON. I move that the vote by which House Bill 1450, (Senate Bill No. 497) passed third reading, be reconsidered.

Mr. BUSH. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. HENDERSON. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk for information

The Clerk then read the amendments as follows

Amend section 2, page 2, line 11, by inserting after the word "may" the following: "with the consent of the State Highway Department if the cost of such bridge was in excess of four hundred thousand dollars"

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendment at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none and the amendment will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. WELLS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. WELLS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in a recent issue of the North American, a paper published in the city of Philadelphia, there appeared articles that are misleading as to my standing on the question of the item in the general appropriation bill of $250,000 for the enforcement of law, as requested by the administration. I want to say that in the Committee of Appropriations, of which I have the privilege of being a member, I have at all times voted for this item of $250,000, requested by the Administration; that when the general appropriation bill was under consideration in the House last week for final passage, and the House had resolved itself into a Committee of the Whole for the purpose of amendment, I voted against the motion of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus, to strike out this $250,000 item from the bill. On the question of the House going into a Committee of the Whole, I voted in favor of the motion to do so because I believe that in all questions of important legislation the majority vote of the House should decide rather than the vote of a small number composing one of our committees.

I am asking this privilege as I know the newspaper articles referred to have created an erroneous impression, and further that I deem them to be absolutely unfair, and, in the case of the issue of yesterday, untrue.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege, will be spread upon the journal.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1126, entitled:

An Act to amend section one thousand four hundred and one of an act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and nine) entitled "An Act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith"

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. BURNS.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1314, entitled:

An Act to give concurrent jurisdiction to the municipal court in actions for divorce in any judicial district in which such court shall exist and providing that all laws relating thereto are hereby made applicable to said court

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill which is pending, No. 1314, file folio 6413, refers to the action of divorce and provides that henceforth the municipal court shall have concurrent jurisdiction in matters relating to divorce with the common pleas. I understand that this bill relates to the city of Philadelphia alone, because ours is the only city with a municipal court. In Allegheny county, they have a county court with similar jurisdiction, but it does not work under the same name. I fail, personally, to find any good reason why the jurisdiction in matters of divorce should be taken away from or shared with the old common pleas court. The common pleas court is a court of higher dignity, and questions that relate to divorce or the separation of family ties are questions of the highest importance. It seems to me that it would be a mistake to have two courts having jurisdiction over that same kind of subject matter. Those courts work under the acts of Assembly, and they also work under the rules that they themselves adopts. If any court adopts easier rules than another court, it naturally becomes easier to get divorces. We would not want that. It seems to me that there are no objections in Philadelphia to the present plan. I fail to see any reason why that plan should be changed. I therefore ask the members of the House who agree with me to vote against this bill.

Mr. BURNS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the municipal court is more familiar with the domestic relations than any other body. According to their report they have reconciled about eighty per cent of all the cases in the domestic relations court that have come before them and with the advance knowledge in many of the divorce cases, they have records of the domestic relations up to the time that they apply for their divorces.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in answer to the argument of the gentleman from Philadelphia that he does not see any reason why the municipal court should have jurisdiction in divorce cases, because the municipal court may adopt looser rules, is of no effect, because at the present time in Philadelphia, the rules of the common pleas court are the rules of the municipal court. The same rules and procedure prevail in both courts. As to the capability of the municipal court to handle divorce cases, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Burns, just forwarded a reason which makes them probably more efficient, that at the present time, having exclusive jurisdiction in the question of husband and wife cases, as also the questions in the juvenile cases, they maintain a large and efficient force of probation officers who always follow up a case as soon as a report is made, and continue following up a case after the case has reached the court. In Phildelphia we have a large number of divorce cases. I noticed by a paper this morning that one of our common pleas judges says they have one case of divorce in eight cases of marriage; and in Chicago, I noticed it was one in five, so that there seems to be plenty of business, so far as the divorce business is concerned, to be distributed between the common pleas and the municipal court. So that I say for those two reasons, this bill ought to be passed, first, because the municipal court is in as good, if not a better position to handle domestic relation cases, and second, because the same rules of procedure prevail in both. In addition to that, however, divorces in Philadelphia are not handled by the court directly. They merely have supervisory jurisdiction. In other words, after an application for divorce has been made, the case is referred to a master, a practicing member of the bar, who receives a fee for taking the testimony, considering it and filing his report. This report gives his recommendations and after being filed with the court is read by one of the judges and approved or disapproved. That same supervisory power can, of course, be exercised by the judges of the municipal courts, and as a matter of fact their greater familiarity with domestic relations cases and trouble renders them probably more efficient, so for those reasons I think that this bill should be adopted.

Mr. DILSHEIMER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill to my estimation, is of wide importance to the public in general in Philadelphia, and for this reason: In the first place, at the present time divorce proceedings are actually instituted in the common pleas court. Our domestic relation cases are altogether handled by the municipal court. I made an investigation of my own of the municipal courts records, and I find that in a little over nine years, since the municipal court has been established in the city of Phialdelphia, in over 55,0000 cases which have been tried on domestic relation questions, over sixty percent of them have been satisfactorily adjusted between the litigants, in other words, between man and wife, and out of that percentage, over forty percent of them, man and wife, have been brought together permanently and are living together happily. Now, ladies and gentlemen of this House, I want to say to you that the facilities which the municipal court has in its possession, they have quite a number of investigators, when proceedings are brought into the municipal court, if this bill passes, giving it jurisdiction in divorce cases, by the investigation, and the proper investigation, which there is no doubt will be made, there will be many a case where the man and wife can be brought together before the master is appointed.

At the present time, I want to say to you the majority of our attorneys have to hire detectives to look for evidence, and we all know that more or less a detective works for his fees, and many times evidence is manufactured. Therefore, I think this bill is a good bill, and it protects the public better than the law does as it is at the present time with reference to divorce proceedings, and I ask you in all fairness to vote for this bill. I thank you.

RESOLUTION TO REDUCE NUMBER OF HOUSE EMPLOYEES.

Miss MACKINNEY offered the following resolution which was twice read and laid over under the rules:

RESOLUTION.

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, that

Whereas the number of officers and employes of the House of Representatives as fixed by an Act of the General Assembly, approved the first day of July, 1919, entitled "An Act fixing the number, compensation, mileage, and duties of the officers and employes of the General Assembly, and providing for their election or appointment, term of office, and manner of filling vacancies," has provided for employes greatly in excess of the number actually required to properly perform the duties imposed upon them; and

Whereas a considerable number of such employes not being needed to assist in the performance of said duties have been giving little or no time in the service for which they have been appointed; and

Whereas the same has resulted in the useless and needless expenditure of money and a less number of employes could properly and efficiently perform all the duties necessarily required.

Therefore, be it resolved that the members of the House of Representatives at the Session of 1923 recommended to th members of the Session of 1925 that said Act of Assembly be amended to decrease the number of said employes in order that said useless extravagance and the unwarranted expenditure of the State funds be eliminated.

And be it further resolved that it is hereby recommended to the House of Representatives for the Session of 1925, that the number of officers and employes be fixed as follows:

Six Assistant Sergeants-at-Arms; two messengers; four Pasters and Folders; five Clerks to committees; five Custodians of the Hall of the House and Committee Rooms and Wash Rooms and Basement; three Transcribing Clerks, and one Desk Clerk, which said number of employes together with the other officers and employes as designated by said Act of Assembly are ample and sufficient to properly and efficiently serve the House of Representatives and to perform all the duties required of them.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1407 (Senate Bill No. 509), entitled:

An Act to require the teaching of the Constitution of the United States in the public and private schools

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SCHLEITER. Mr. Speaker, we do not hear the announcements from the Chair or by the Clerk in the last few rows. This morning I was on the verge of asking, if it was in order, but of course I knew that such a thing was not in order but I was on the verge of asking that those members occupying the last three or four rows be excused from any participation in the discussions before the House because it was utterly impossible either this morning or this afternoon to hear either the Speaker or the Clerks.

The SPEAKER. The Chair feels that the members in the rear of the House have some cause for complaint. The loud talking in the rear of the Hall is most inexcusable. It is not only that you are annoying one member, but you are annoying several. You are preventing them from participating intelligently in the affairs of this House. The Chair has used a great deal of effort to prevent this talking. We have stationed the sergeant-at-arms in the rear of the Hall, but it seems that no matter what we do, no courtesy is extended by those visiting the House. The Chair has received a great many complaints of late regarding the lobbyist coming upon the floor of the House. They annoy the members and prevent them from doing the things they want to do. It apparently makes no difference whether a roll call is in progress, whether a debate is being held upon a bill or whatnot. The aisles are clogged, and the member's attention is taken up at a time when he ought to be attending to the business before the House. Now the Chair dislikes to resort to stern measures, and we trust that a word to the wise will be sufficient.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with the information that the House has passed the same without amendment.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,
The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. GIBBON.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1392 (Senate Bill No. 600), entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the eighth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (P. L. 915) entitled "An Act to fix the salaries of the deputies in the offices of the clerk of the courts county controller, recorder of deeds, county treasurer, chief deputy sheriff, and chief clerk to the county commissioners, in counties of this Commonwealth having over two hundred and fifty thousand population and less than four hundred thousand population; by changing the manner of fixing salaries and prescribing the minimum thereof; and making the act apply to counties of the third class.

On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. Speaker, this bill applies to Westmoreland County, from which I come, and it raises the salaries of the deputy in the different offices from $2500 to $3000. Representing probably 280,000 inhabitants of our county, I feel that this bill is unnecessary. There is no movement on foot in our county to increase the salaries so far as I can see. There is an organization, I believe, of the deputies of the State that has advocated this bill, but on behalf of the taxpayers of my county I protest and I wish to state that we have been getting excellent service in our county from the deputies. We have no trouble whatever in getting deputies to do the work. They are a fine body of men and women and they are willing to go on at the present salary. Therefore I see no necessity of raising these salaries and I would ask this House to vote down this bill.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. GIBBON. Mr. Speaker, I have been advised that there is an error on page 2 of this bill, a typographical error, and I would therefore move that further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

TIME EXTENDED ON BILL.

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the time on House Bill No. 1383 (Senate Bill No. 434) file folio 1011 entitled:

An Act to further amend section one of an act, approved the twelfth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, entitled "An Act permitting counties of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to appropriate and expend moneys and to incur indebtedness and issue bonds and other obligations, for the improvement and maintenance of State highways and State-aid highways or any public highway in any county of the Commonwealth, and providing the method for applying for said moneys and for the approval thereof by the State Highway Department in certain cases."

on page 25 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed be extended five days.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

TIME EXTENDED ON BILL.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the time on House Bill No. 581 file folio 6673 entitled:

An Act imposing a poll tax for county purposes on male and female residents over the age of twenty-one years and abolishing the occupation tax

Mr. LUDLOW. Mr. Speaker, I move that the time on House Bill No. 88 file folio 6635, entitled:

A further supplement to an act, approved the eighteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, entitled "An act authorizing the appointment of a commission to supervise the revising, amending, consolidating, and simplifying of the laws relating to the assessment, levy, and collection of taxes for all purposes; prescribing the power and duty of such commission; imposing certain duties on the Legislative Reference Bureau; and making an appropriation": continuing the commission appointed under the provisions of said act for a further period of two years and making an appropriation.

on page 27 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed be extended five days.

Mr. STORB. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

TIME EXTENDED ON BILL.

Mr. LAURER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the time on House Bill No. 1460 (Senate Bill No. 793) file folio 1949, entitled:

An Act to repeal the act approved the tenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one (Pamphlet Laws six hundred sixty-seven) entitled "An Act to empower the school directors of Tuscarora and Spruce Hill townships in the county of Juniata to annex certain lands in Spruce Hill township and Tuscarora township in the county of Juniata for school purposes

Mr. HARTER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

TIME EXTENDED ON BILL.

Mr. PRICE. Mr. Speaker, I move that the time on House Bill No. 607 file folio 4509 entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an Amendment to Section Fifteen of Article Five of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania on page 23 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed be extended five days.

Mr. PEELOR. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

TIME EXTENDED ON BILL

Mr. PRICE. Mr. Speaker, I move that the time on House Bill No. 991, file folio 4887 entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to article three of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by adding thereto section thirty-four on page 23 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed be extended five days.

Mr. PEELOR. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. MATHAY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

TIME EXTENDED ON BILL

Mr. VICKERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the time on House Bill No. 1252 file folio 4825 entitled:

An Act providing for the licensing of certain stills and other distilling apparatus imposing certain duties upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth providing for the search for and seizure and destruction of unlicensed stills and distilling apparatus and providing penalties on page 24 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed be extended five days.

Mr. McVICAR. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. ORR,

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1421 (Senate Bill No. 268), entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to article four section eight of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania prohibiting after adjournment the appointment to office of any person whose nomination the Senate failed to confirm

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. ORR. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. HOWARD SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. ORR. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk then read the amendment as follows:

Amend on page 1 by striking out of lines 10 and 11 the words "not confirmed" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "rejected".

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendment at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendment will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. HOWARD SMITH.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1318, entitled:

An Act imposing a State tax on the premiums paid into the State Workmen's Insurance Fund and providing for collection thereof

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DAVID FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Howard Smith, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HOWARD SMITH. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. DAVID FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I would like the sponsor of this bill to explain the purpose of the bill.

Mr. HOWARD SMITH. Mr. Speaker, this bill imposes a tax of eight mills on the premium paid into the workmen's insurance fund. This fund is exempt from the State tax which all other insurance companies pay. This State insurance fund has accumulated a surplus of $5,000,000, which the State cannot touch, the money really belonging to the policyholders. Since this insurance fund is not a State department there is no reason why it should not be taxed the same as any other insurance companies. This bill was prepared by the Auditor General. I have here a letter from the former insurance commissioner stating that the bill meets with his approval. I also have a letter from the present commissioner approving this bill.

Mr. DAVID FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, if this bill should pass would it increase the premiums on the insurance policy?

Mr. HOWARD SMITH. No, it would not.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. McBride.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 890, (Senate Bill No. 240), entitled

An Act to amend section six of an act approved the twentieth day of June one thousand nine hundred and seventen (Pamphlet Laws six hundred and eighteen) entitled "An act relating to the appointment of persons to the police department in cities of the third class providing for and regulating examinations the manner of appointments and the manner and power of removal of employes of said department and providing a method for fixing compensation" as amended

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, at every session of the legislature there are a number of bills introduced dealing with the police regulations of cities of the third class. Why this is done, I do not know, because I think these cities that are most interested are the best judges of the regulation that should be passed. At this session we had bills regarding police pension funds, wages for police, hours for police and umbrellas for police.

Mr. Speaker, the bill in question is an amendment to the act of 1917, and its amendment of 1919, known as the Civil Service act for police in cities of the third class. In 1917, the Legislature pased the so-called Civil Service act I say, so-called, because it had only to do with the examination of the police. It created a civil service board for examination only. The trial board, the judge and the jury, were the mayor and the four councilmen, three of whom are a majority. That act also provided that if a mayor suspended a policeman for any term whatever whether he was compelled to present charges to council, which was not a very fair thing to do because the mayors in these towns are human, and it is often the case that the mayor wishes to remind a policeman of a little infraction of his duty. In cities of the third class the mayor is elected by the people and his first duty it to supervise departments of the city, and more especially the Department of Police. The Act of 1917 places in the hands of the majority of council, which is three, there being only the mayor and four councilmen, the power to tie the hands of the mayor in the conduct of police, so in 1919 the legislature passed an amendment which provides that the mayor shall have the power to suspend for a period of ten days without preferring charges to council, but if suspended for more than ten days the Mayor must present charges to council.

For four years this act has worked without any trouble whatever without any hardship, and with considerable betterment of the department of police in the cities of the third class. There has been no trouble except in one case where in one city the mayor did overstep the mark, or at least it was so stated. Now, because that one mayor has overstepped the mark, this bill would tie the hands of the mayors of every third class city in this Commonwealth.

Ladies and gentlemen of the House, I think this is very unfair. I think that the people of McKeesport, if they think their mayor is wrong, can elect a new mayor. This bill has had a public hearing, in fact, it has had two hearings, and I, therefore, ask you to vote "no" on this bill.

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Less than the majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in he negative and the bill falls.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. McCAIG,

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1456, (Senate Bill No. 570), entitled:

An Act providing for the merging of moneys held in certain special funds in the State Treasury with moneys in the general fund providing for the use of all moneys in the general fund for the payment of appropriations and for the payment from the general fund of moneys appropriated and dedicated for special purposes

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. McCAIG. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk then read the amendments as follows:

Amend the title page one line one by striking out the word "merging" and inserting in lieu thereof: "temporary transfer".

Amend the title page one line two by striking out all after the word "treasury" and inserting in lieu thereof: "for the payment of appropriations payable from the general fund and for the return of said moneys to said special funds".

Amend section one page one line four by inserting after the word "into" the words "special fund in".

Amend section one page two line two by striking out after the word "board" all of said section and inserting in lieu thereof "and all moneys in such special funds in the State Treasury at the date of the approval of this act other than those hereinbefore excepted may be temporarily transferred into the general fund of the State Treasury upon order of the Governor in such amounts and for such time and for such specific purpose or purposes as the order of the Governor may direct with the approval of the head of the department, board, commission or other agency authorized to expend such moneys.

Amend section two line thirteen by inserting after the word "shall" the words "continue to".

Amend section two by striking out in line seventeen after the word "special" all the remainder of said section and inserting in lieu thereof "fund or funds shall be transferred as provided above the State Treasurer shall on the date stated in the Governor's order repay said moneys from the general fund into the said special fund or funds. It is not the intent of this act to abolish any special fund now existing in accordance with law but only to make available temporarily the moneys held in certain special funds for the payment of appropriations payable from the general fund under the conditions specified above."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. BLAIR,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 320, entitled:

An Act to prevent fraud at elections providing a system of authenticating and marking ballots and of locking ballot boxes providing for the installation of counties of certain mechanical equipment and for the use and custody thereof providing for the appointment by the Governor of a commission to select and approve such equipment and fixing penalties

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. BLAIR. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the nature of this Bill is such that I believe it needs some explanation.

When this session of legislature convened I had no intention of introducing such a measure, for I did not believe a device existed for voting purposes that was really meritorious, but I am glad to sponsor this bill because of the great good it will do if it becomes a law and its provisions are carried out.

There has been so much publicity about election frauds in the past few years that the people expect their legislators to provide a remedy at their first opportunity. I believe this to be a real opportunity.

Little wonder it is that after such wide publicity the voters have become discouraged and are not coming out to vote. They have lost confidence in the ballot and say it is useless to go to the polls any longer. This lost confidence must be restored, and that is one of the purposes of this bill. It is not that we want change in the present methods casting and counting ballots, but that we want a ballot that cannot be tampered with, and we want the marking of that ballot done in such a manner that the voter can see for himself that he has protection in order that confidence may be restored.

Since the days of Ancient Babylon an embossing die has been used for security. Every coin you are now carrying in your pocket bears the impression of a die put there under governmental supervision to make it official. Every important paper or document bears an embossed die to make it official and for security. To argue that our election ballots should not have the same protection is to argue that they are not important papers is to argue that the will of the people does not mean anything and that we as voters are not really supposed to exercise our dearly bought right of franchise at all but are to go through the performance only as camouflage.

This bill provides for the installation of such time controlled recording seal press for the protection of the ballot, and will limit all voting to the booths between the legal opening and closing time on election day, and prevents the substituting or altering of ballots.

Specific results are called for in this bill, but specific mechanism to produce such results are not called for. No such device can be installed for use until approved by a commission created by this act. The commission has full power to set prices and determine equipment to be used, and may refuse to permit installation if for any reason they so desire, provided they will make that reason or reasons known to the Committee on elections at the next session of this legislature.

They will have ample time and opportunity to determine any point that may be disputed here.

The equipment being demonstrated here in this building is absolutely flexible in every sense of the word and will meet any conditions to which the paper ballot can be subjected.

During our stay here at the Capitol our time is necessarily limited and the demonstrations have been short, but I assure you that any points that are not clear to you could be easily cleared up had you the time to go into it.

There is one or two points, however, that I want to mention in answer to questions that have been asked by those who hurried through the demonstrations.

The counter cannot be run around by stamping 1000 ballots and throwing them away like the counter on the voting machine.

If a crowd is on hand at closing time they may be accommodated without any chance of fraudulent manipulation.

The only mechanism that is at all likely to get out of order is that the clock would stop. But if it should it would not interrupt the progress of the election, it only being necessary for the officials to turn it off at the close of the voting in order to gain access to the ballot box.

All the discussions that I have heard so far regarding election frauds convinces me that the entire trouble is the fact that the ballot can be tampered with in various ways and that we are unable to prove the fact in court although it is to be a fact

The enactment of laws during the years past has failed to produce results because they are not obeyed by the parties for whom they are intended, and where it is absolutely certain that the law is being violated we are unable to produce evidence that will secure convictions.

We have been in this bad way so long that many of us seem to have become reconciled to the disease and would rather die than be cured. But these un-American and undemocratic practices have gone on too long and we must awaken to this fact and put a stop to them or danger lies in the not distant future.

It is my firm conviction that this bill enacted into law will do more towards giving the voters their full rights than all the measures ever discussed in this room along this line.

I ask you all to support this measure, as there is not a reason in the world why this matter should not be passed on to a commission to determine its value to the Commonwealth, and I feel absolutely confident that the voters back home who sent you here to look after their interest will concur in such action on your part.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DAVID FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I, too, am in favor of honest elections, but I have been investigating some of the voting machines, not only in this State, but in some of the other states, and you will always find some fellow that is handling the machine who will tell you how easy it is to beat the other machine. The ballots may be marked all right, I am not going to talk at length on this question, but I might relate a little experience I had in an election when I was allied with an organization at one time. It was an honest election. They happened to have a Polish friend of mine, who hadn't much experience in voting, but he was a good fellow in bringing in the Polish votes. I said to Felix, "I want you to go on a committee and I want you to vote as I tell you to do," and Felix said, "All right, I fix him all right." So it happened that one candidate was White and the other candidate was Walker, and we were all in favor of White. So, when the Polish that couldn't read English would come up to the polls, we would say, "Which man do you want? You want Mr. White?" "No, I don't want Mr. White." "All right," he says, "We will cross him out." The next fellow would come along, and he would say, "Who are you for?" "I'm for Mr. White." "All right, you can vote." So, with the machine that my friend was just speaking about, I believe that Felix would mark all the votes in the ward. All he would have to do was ask them who they wanted to punch out, and Felix would punch them out. If a man said he was against a candidate, Felix would say, "All right, we will punch him out;" and if he was for him, he would say, "We will punch him in." So, you can see there is always a way to beat a machine. But I am not against the voting machine, I am not against anything that will make an honest vote, but this is a session of economies. We are economical, and I want to say to you I don't feel that we lawmakers should spend thousands and millions of dollars for creating machines when we are now threshing out tax questions, and for that reason I believe we ought to vote this bill down.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Blair.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Blair, permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. BLAIR. Yes, sir, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, isn't it a fact that this machine is being made up in the county of Erie?

Mr. BLAIR. This machine is not made any place at the present time. It is just simply a sample of the machine that will be made.

Mr. MILLER. Isn't it a fact that the sample produced here was made up in Erie?

Mr. BLAIR. Yes, that is true.

Mr. MILLER. Isn't it a fact that you are more or less interested in the construction and manufacture of this machine?

Mr. BLAIR. It is not. I have no interest in this machine, financial or any other way. I didn't know anything more about this machine, gentlemen, when I came down here, than the rest of you did. It was a new thing to me when I came here, even though I live in the county of Erie, and it was made in my home county.

Mr. BREWSTER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Blair.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Blair, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BLAIR. Yes, sir, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BREWSTER. Mr. Blair, I could not hear all of your discussion on this measure, but as I understand the bill, if it should become a law, it will be mandatory upon all the counties, or the commissioners of the respective counties to adopt this voting machine or device that is referred in the bill?

Mr. BLAIR. Yes, I think this device should be put in universally.

Mr. BREWSTER. There is no discretion allowed or would there be any discretion allowed the county commissioners in the matter at all? It would be compulsory or mandatory upon them to place these machines in operation in all the counties?

Mr. BLAIR. I understand it that way, after it is approved by the commission.

Mr. BREWSTER. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, to express the sentiment of one of the smaller counties of this Commonwealth and one that needs all the money that we can save for them, I feel that I ought to rise in protest against the passage of this measure. We don't know very much out in our rural districts about fraudulent elections, and I think we are well able to conduct our elections in the old-fashioned way and vote just as we have been voting for the last hundred years without the aid of machines. If this bill simply authorized the county commissioners of the various counties to place these machines there, then I might favor the measure, since in that way, each county could use their own judgment; the commissioners of each county could use their own judgment in that matter. But I speak here, for the counties, as I say, that need their money; and to make it compulsory on the smaller counties of this Commonwealth to buy their voting machines as Mr. Fowler has said, when we need all the money for taxes, I would advise and protest against the passage of this bill, and I would suggest that every member, at least of the rural districts, vote against this measure.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

MOTION TO RECOMMIT BILL.

Mr. BLAIR. Mr. Speaker, it has been suggested that this bill be referred to the committee on Elections, and I therefore move that House Bill No. 320, be recommitted to the committee on Elections for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. MORRISON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion.

The Speaker declared the noes appeared to have it,

Whereupon a division was called for, sixty-four members having voted in the affirmative and seventy-eight in the negative, and the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. HARER.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 48, entitled:

An Act relating to public services companies limiting their charges to services actually rendered or furnished requiring such companies to supply all instruments and devices necessary and incidental to their service prohibiting the discontinuance of service as a means collectng charges in certain cases and prescribing penalties

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STORER. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, this bill was before this House last week and was voted down. Since that bill has been voted down this House has voted an appropriation of $640,000 to take care of just such matters as appear in this bill. I do not think that this Legislature should try to tell the Public Service Commission what they are to do in the matter of making rates. This is simply a rate making measure and such measures are in the province of the Public Service Commission. That is what we have the Public Service Commission for. Now, if you are going to make that power away from them you had better abolish the Public Service Commission and save the $640,000.00. These charges must be paid in some way or other, if you don't pay a ready to serve charge you just pay it in the commodity which is purchased, and I don't see that there is any difference, and the upshot of it would be simply the disturbing of the rates that are made by all public service companies in Pennsylvania and when they disturb those the customer generally gets the worse of the bargain. Just like when the Standard Oil Company was dissolved, and put in a different number of forms, the customer paid more all the time.

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker and members of this House, I believe this bill has a great deal of merit, otherwise I would not rise to defend it. I have practiced before the Public Service Commision, and I yield to no one in my esteem and admiration for that tribunal, but when we remember that these ready to serve charge rates go into effect almost immediately after the public service company has presented its side to the Public Service Commission, without any redress on the part of the public, and with a big array of figures from the standpoint of the public service company going before that Commission, and when we remember that at the public hearings that were held on this bill the public service companies could not define logically and scientifically the charges that the public service commission allowed, then I think it is only fair and just that we should establish certain fixed principles that would guide the Public Service Commision in arriving at the ready to serve charges. That is what this bill proposes to do. In the first place, ladies and gentlemen of this House, a public service company when it furnishes you with a commodity, either gas, electricity, or water, as the case may be, it charges a commodity charge plus a ready to serve charge. Now that ready to serve charge in most localities expresses itself in a fixed charge, whether you use the commodity or not, of fifty cents and upwards. Suppose, for instance, that you are consuming gas. The public utility company furnishes you with gas, and if you consume $5.00 worth of gas during the month you have added to your bill 50 cents as a ready to serve charge. If you don't consume any gas at all, of course, you pay the 50 cents charge.

Now, this bill is fair in this respect that it admits there is a necessity for a ready to serve charge, but it limits that ready to serve charge to certain well defined things. When the representatives of public service companies appeared before this committee that had in charge the hearing on this bill, they said, among other things that a consumers charge was the fair, basis for the ready to serve charge so we have included in this bill that these charges which are commonly called customers costs or consumers costs or charges, inculding these four things: meter reading, meter inspection, billing and book-keeping, may be equally divided among the customers receiving such service. We are willing to admit that these four things should enter into a ready to serve charge, whether the person uses the commodity or not. For instance, if I am a customer of the Gas Company, the Gas Company must come and inspect my meter, it must read my meter, it must bill me my bill, and it must keep the books. That far I am willing to go that a ready to serve charge is just and equitable, and should be borne equally by all customers, whether they use the commodity or not. But from there on whatever charge they have put on is not a scientific charge but is simply a convenient way for the public utility company to pass the buck to the small consumer, and of hitting him hard so that they can keep the rates down on the large consumer, and in defense of that position I want to quote from a memorandum filed by one of the public utilities companies before the committee at the hearing. Among other things they say: "While on the subject of large consumers, it might be well to mention that if schedule composed exclusively of consumption charges makes the cost of water, for instance to an industrial establishment such as a factory or a railroad, much higher than they could furnish the service themselves through the sinking of an artesian well, or securing water from a nearby stream, the Company would lose the revenue from such establishments as may decide to supply their own water."

That is quoted from their own brief, in other words they take the position that unless they soak the small consumer, and soak him unduly and unjustly, they will have to raise all their rates and then they will lose some of their big customers. That is unfair and unjust, and that is what this bill seeks to correct.

I have been a member of this House for four sessions, and I think I can say without egotism that I have tried to stand by legislation along conservative lines, and constructive lines, only, and I believe this is a conservative, constructive bill; fair to the Public Service Commission, fair to the public service utilities, fair to the public, and for that reason I ask you to vote for this bill.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have often had my doubts as to the fairness of the ready to serve charge. We have, however, by an Act of Assembly, a Public Service Commission. Now, the duties of that commission are to examine into the different elements that enter into these charges of one company, another company and another company. Now two companies have the same question involved; no two questions are raised, as far as rates are concerned; that can be compared between two companies. Now, certainly, when we put it up to the Public Service Commission to investigate these charges, with the different elements entering into all the different companies, it won't do for us to pass acts of legislation here, tying their hands and saying, "You shall take this rule, this hard and fast rule," to every one of these companies and expect to get any kind of a fair deal from them. Now, if what is laid down in this Act of Assembly, here in this bill, if that is a proper thing to do, I have no doubt that on an appeal from some of these rates if the question were taken before the Public Service Commission, that if the gentleman from Lycoming could show to these gentlemen; whose experience is far better than mine, that this is a good rule in some instances, I have no doubt that the Public Service Commission would adopt that rule. But for us to tie their hands by a hard and fast rule, by an act of this kind, is unfair, and sooner or later, somebody is goin to get an unfair decision and you can't expect to get a fair decision from a tribunal of that kind. If, on the other hand, we have a Public Service Commission that is able to act on these cases, the next method is to change them and get men who will look into it in a different light, but as long as that commission exists, let us try the other end of it. In other words, we argue a case in court; we don't pass a law to compel the judge to decide a certain case in a certain way, according to the facts, but we leave the facts in each case, and all the facts in every case, as you all know, differ; and therefore, you leave it to the judge and the jury to find those facts as they exist in that particular case, and each case must rest upon its own facts. Therefore it is not a good thing to do when we have a tribunal like the Public Service Commission to tie their hands by an Act of Assembly as this does.

Mr. HARER. Mr. Speaker, I should like to interrogate the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Storer.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Storer, permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. STORER. I will Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HARER. Mr. Storer, are you the president of a public service company?

Mr. STORER. Yes, I am the president of the Pottstown Gas and Water Company.

Mr. HARER. Do you use the service charge?

Mr. STORER. No sir.

Mr. HARER. Why?

Mr. STORER. Well, we never started it and we don't use it, that is all. We never started it; I have been in that company for thirty years, and we didn't know what a ready to serve charge was for thirty years, and we never change our rates.

Mr. HARER. You are perfectly satisfied the way you are making your rates?

Mr. STORER. Yes.

Mr. HARER. You are perfectly satisfied with the decitions of the Public Service Commission?

Mr. STORER. Sure, I want to say further that the various public utilities companies that furnish these different services furnish them in such a different way that it is hard to make a fixed rule. Now, in the house in which I live, I get service from five companies. I get service from the telephone company, from a gas company, from a water company, from an electric light company and from a sewer company. Now, then, I pay a ready to serve charge in different ways in cash one of these five companies. The one company that I pay a ready to serve charge to is the gas company. I pay a ready to serve charge to the Bell Telephone Company because they charge me so much a month for my telephone. I pay to the water company, they made me put in my own service, and that cost me $150.00 to put it in, and that is a ready to serve charge, and I never get the principle back. It is the same way with the sewer company. The sewer went into my house last year, and it cost me $425.00 to put that in. Is not that a ready to serve charge? and I have got to pay a tax anyway to run that sewer, but it is a ready to serve charge, and I lose the principle and interest on $425.00 and that is furnished by the municipality which charges at least three times as much as any other company. I say these different utilities that you have in your house are so varied that it is impossible to make a fixed rule and that is what I am speaking against. I am not speaking for my own company, because we don't charge it. I pay another ready to serve charge in another corporation of $3,000 and I am glad to pay it, because I have been consuming steam and we are saving over 40% on the cost after paying the $3,000 ready to serve charge.

Mr. HARER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would like just to use Mr. Storb's own argument in regard to this bill. He does not charge the ready to serve charge, because they have found no necessity for it, and I believe he has also found that it is not a very popular charge. In making the restriction in this charge, we have done so only with the idea that the customer is legally paying what he should pay. Now, if the Public Service Commission has not seen its way clear to decide what elements shall go into a ready to serve charge, then I think it is up to us as representatives of the people to tell them.

Our good friend, Mr. Alexander, has told us that the judges decide on the merits of a case, yet you are continually making laws for them, governing their actions every day right here. Now, why should not we tell the Public Service Commission what things should honestly enter into this charge. I believe it is the only fair and just way to regulate charges, so that the small consumer will be paying for what he actually gets and will not be paying for the larger consumer. I think this bill is very fair and should pass.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as I recall this bill came before the Judiciary General Committee some months ago. There was a public hearing here in the House Caucus Room to which the people generally of the state were invited. The oponents of this measure were almost legion; the proponents of this measure resolved themselves down to the distinguished Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, and he spoke for about two minutes. So far as I have been able to discover there has been no demand for the introduction of a bill of the character of this before us at the present time. The policy that is represented by the public service companies in the ready to serve charge is a well established policy. It is predicated upon equitable principles and I think that it meets with the approval of the general public of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. We do not know where this bill emanated from, all that we have has come from somebody in Lycoming county, or Williamsport, and if the gentleman from Lycoming can show any good reason why this well established practice should be abrogated at this time, I wish he would stand forth now and tell us.

Mr. HARER. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman from York, I wish to say that I have stated my position on the floor of the House, and it didn't emanate from any source other than myself and the public of Lycoming County. The people there have been getting gas from the Penn Power and Light Company, who started in with a service charge of 68 cents and cut it three or four times until they got down to 50 cents. Now, anybody knows that if they changed that five or six times, that there is something wrong with the charge; yet the Public Service Commission continually allows them to do this and the Public Service Commission has not passed upon rates that were asked for up there at least two years ago, and for these very reasons, some restrictions should be placed upon the Public Service Commission.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate, with the information that the House has passed the same without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. STERLING.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 314, entitled:

An Act to define real estate brokers and real estate salesmen and providing for the licensing regulation and supervision of resident and non-resident real estate brokers and real estate salesmen and their business through a bureau in the department of the Secretary of the Commonwealth

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, a word of explanation might be fitting at this time before the House votes on this measure. This bill is commonly known as the real estate brokers and salesmen license bill, and it provides, as its name indicates, a method for the licensing of those men who are brokers and salesmen of that commodity commonly called real estate. The bill provides for the appointment of a commission of three men having seven years of experience in their profession, the appointment to be made by the Chief Executive, and the Commission to be under the control of the Secretary of State. The bill provides for a license fee of $20.00 for those who trade as brokers; $20.00 per annum; for those who trade as salesmen $5.00 per annum, and for members of firms, after the first licensee, $10.00 per annum. The bill provides, by simple machinery, for hearings of complaints against those who are in the group, and provides further that the right of appeal to the Common Pleas Courts, giving thereby the same rights as we all have in the defense of any action that may be brought against us. There is a demand because there is a need for this kind of legislation, and those who are traders are directly behind this bill. In other words, this is not an effort to legislate against real estate brokers and salesmen, but on the contrary it is a request brought to you by brokers and salesmen in real estate that they be licensed. There is a tendency towards elevating the standard of those who trade in real estate, both brokers and salesmen, and this bill is the best thought of the thirty-four real estate boards scattered throughout the State. The benefits of the bill are the results of the experience of fourteen sister states, in which a similar act is on the statute books. It is estimated that the net return from the license fees collected will aggregate about $125,000 and that the cost to administer the commission will be approximately $25,000. The bill provides, however, on that particular feature, that the cost of administration shall not exceed at any time the aggregate fees collected, so that there will be no expense incurred by the state in the licensing of real estate brokers and salesmen. This is not the first time that the state has seen fit, if this bill is passed and signed, to license trades. I mention trades as against professions, because I take it that professions may be considered licensed, for you well know that in the judgment of those who have gone before in the days when in the insurance field there was considerable fraud and cheating and misrepresentation that that condition brought about the licensing of those who sold insurance, both life and fire. So that today, as a part of our government, we have a department, the great part of whose time and energy is spent in the control of those who trade in the commodity known as insurance. This bill is not presented to you by any group with the thought to exclude men who are traders in real estate, whether as brokers or salesmen. On the contrary, it is presented to you for your consideration with the thought that all who trade in real estate be included within its terms and provisions so that the public will ultimately be benefitted by being protected against the frauds and cheating that are fresh in your memory, from your own experience and the experience of your constituents, in connection with transactions in real estate in which they may be involved. I submit to you sincerely that this bill deserves your support and I, therefore, ask it and ask you to give it your vote.

Mr. JOHN G. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am very sorry indeed to have to differ with my good friend from Philadelphia on this measure, which is being considered at this time. This bill provides for what is termed in the caption of the bill the definition of real estate brokers and real estate salesman and providing for the licensing, regulation and supervision of resident and non-resident real estate brokers and real estate salesmen and their business through a bureau in the department of the Secretary of the Commonwealth. Section 2 of this bill defines real estate brokers. If you read it carefully it takes in almost every conceivable case where a man would engage either in the renting or buying or selling or leasing real estate of any kind, either for himself or for another. Then in section 3 it provides for the creation in the department of the Secretary of the Commonwealth of a bureau to be known as the Pennsylvania Real Estate License Commission for the issuance of real estate brokers' and salesmen's licenses under the provisions of this act and the supervision and control, and so forth. This commission shall consist of three members. On page 4, in section 4, of the act it says, "Each member of the commission shall receive as full compensation for each day actually spent on the work of said commission the sum of $25.00 per day and his actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of the duties pertaining to his office." $25.00 a day on full time of 300 days a year means $7500 a year for three members.

Section 5 provides that a secretary of this commission shall be appointed by the Governor to hold office during his pleasure and subject to the approval of the Governor. It further provides that the commission shall employ and at its pleasure discharge such deputies, clerks and assistants as shall be deemed necessary to discharge the duties imposed by the provisions of this act, and shall fix their salaries. In the first place, I do not understand why this legislature should be called upon to create a commission to control things of this kind. I do not think it is necessary. I can readily understand why if a man studies a profession such as a doctor or a denist or something of that kind if that is proper to have a state board to regulate their practice, but when it comes to providing that a man cannot go out and sell his neighbor's property on a proper commission basis without coming to Harrisburg or sending here and getting a permit from a board, I think we are going too far. We have had some experience during the past few sessions in creating commissions, and you know the desire exists throughout the state at this time to repeal an act passed here a few years ago creating a commission for one line of work. I think we are attempting to create a monopoly by legislation of this kind. I see no more reason why real estate brokers should be licensed and regulated from Harrisburg anymore than we should regulate hardware men and grocery men throughout the outlying districts. One man has just as much right to be regulated from Harrisburg, as the other. One is just as important from the standpoint of the public as the other, and so far as the protection of the public is concerned, I can see no advantage in that, for the reason that we have our law courts open for proper relief to anyone whose rights have been violated by an unscrupulous real estate broker. Personally I do not think that the granting of a license on an application, as provided in this bill, is going to reach the result represented to us, or is going to be of any benefit to the public at large. For that reason, and on account of the expense entailed in this bill. I am opposed to it and hope that you will vote it down.

Mr. SCHLEITER. Mr. Speaker, I have heard for the first time the welcome sound of the welcome voice, one that we have waited for ever since this Legislature was organized and for which most of the members claim they were elected, and that was the sound of economy. Now we have another bill which we are asked to consider and asked to pass, providing for just the reverse. It is alleged that this is going to cost the State nothing, but it certainly must come out of the pockets of the people. Now it seems to me we have enough commissions here on capitol hill. It seems to me it is time to call a halt. It would seem well for some of these people who expect to get these jobs to take a pick and shovel and go to work. Now we have in many communities men who are engaged in the real estate business in a small way. Take communities of, say, five hundred or a thousand people. Occasionally there is a piece of real estate to be sold, but you will penalize these men or in many cases women by imposing upon them a license fee of $100, and their total earnings for the year may not exceed more than that amount. It looks to me to be a bill presented here by the great real estate interests who are trying to drive the small real estate dealers out of business. And if there were no other expense in connection with it, I think we ought to vote the bill down. We are doing nothing but legislate, legislate, legislate, and the time will come when we will not be able to turn around until we first go or write to Harrisburg to find out whether we turn to the right or turn to the left. It seems to me that it is time we cease creating commissions and cease burdening the people with extra expenses, and get off the people's backs where we have been altogether too long.

Miss GRIMES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am very much in favor of the passage of this bill, because I believe it is going to result in more homes and better homes. In reply to the gentleman from Beaver, who spoke about the expense, if he reads the law carefully he will find that the expense of the twenty-five dollars a day comes out of interest, and there is no expense to the State. Many measures have come before us this session that have had in them clauses against profiteering by the real estate men, and there seems to be a very general sentiment that real estate men generally are profiteers. I think it is a very healthy sentiment that the real estate men themselves are attempting to regulate their business and raise the standards of the real estate business in their own profession instead of allowing us to legislate against profiteers. This bill seems to be fair, honest and honorable, and a right-thinking real estate man tends to impress a standard on the real estate business and to drive out the faults, while a profiteering real estate man is bringing down the standard of living. If you would ask me what is the greatest need of our country at the present time, I should say the need is for more homes. It has been the greatest need for years, and if I were asked what has been the greatest tragedy of American life, I would say that it is the passing of the American home. Where is the home that you and I used to know in our younger days that now seems so far away? The men of this assemblage courted their wives in the old-fashioned home, where there was plenty of room. You met there, and you met the members of her family, who came in and gave you the "once-over" and then they passed on to another part of the house, and you had plenty of food and plenty of solitude and plenty of privacy, and she was there in the bosom of her family, and under their protection. What kind of homes do we have today? Cheap, profiteering kinds of shacks, where the rain comes in through the roof, the plaster falls off the walls and the wind comes up through the floor and the rent man comes into the door and takes all the money. There is no privacy, no solitude; the young girl of today is driven out to a park bench, and Mr. Vickerman comes along and passes a law so that you can watch the girl on the park bench. The young man of today has to go out of his home into the poolroom, and Mr. Woner passes a law about screen doors. Because of the wrong kind of homes today, we are obliged to pass laws to watch people. What we need more than anything else is the kind of a home where young people are trained in self-restraint and right living, and learn to be a law unto themselves. I say we need more homes, and this bill is a tendency in that direction. Women would be back in the home more than they are at the present time if they had them and because we can't get these kind of homes ourselves, we women have got to come to you and ask you to get them for us.

Houses are built of bricks and stones,
And floors and doors and tiers,
But a home is made of loving deeds
That last for a thousand years.

Men would only build houses of mortar and brick and stone, but the women, the women build the homes. We ask you to pass this bill in the interests of better homes and more homes as a step in the right direction.

Mr. McCURDY. Mr. Speaker, I am opposed to the passage of this bill, because it takes away from the citizens of this State the right to employ their neighbors to look after their real estate during their absence from home for the leasing of the same, and the collection of the rent and subjects them to go to one of the licensed real estate brokers. Another feature is that it takes away from the man his constitutional rights to engage in a laudable undertaking without first coming to Harrisburg or some other place to secure a permit to engage in that undertaking. In regard to the expense to the State, there is a clause here wherein it states that the Commissioner of Public Grounds and Buildings—Mr. Speaker and members of the House, you may be very sorry that you did not listen to the arguments against the passage of this bill. If this bill, if it would pass and become a law, because it takes away from you your rights to handle your own piece of real estate according to your own judgment. There are sufficient places in this State where you can get reliable information as to who are competent real estate brokers. You can go to your banker, who is familiar with all of them, and he will recommend you to the very best. It is my mistake if I place my property in the hands of an irresponsible real estate broker. If I want to purchase a piece of real estate, it is my mistake if I don't inquire as to the reliability of the man from whom I propose to make my purchase. As I have said before, it takes away from a man the right to engage in a laudable undertaking. The constitution, I believe, grants the rights for every man to earn for himself an honest livelihood, and he should not have any chains around his neck of this character, and I hope that this bill will not pass.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal

Session 1923 125th of the General Assembly

Vol. 7. HARRISBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, MAY 16, 1923. No. 58.

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, MAY 16, 1923.

The Senate met at 11 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. T. L. Eyre) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Edward S. Ninde, offered the following prayer:

Our Father in Heaven: Bless the Senators as they come together for another day's business. They will need clear minds as they take up the work that lies before them. Help them to put first things first. May they ignore petty issues and be guided by great principles. May they never forget that the final accounting will not be made to any Party or to any Constitutency but to Almighty God, and above all else may they seek to know and to do Thy will. Bless the House of Representatives; bless our Governor and all the State Officials, and grant that every one may be actuated by the highest motives.

We ask it in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The PRESIDENT—A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceeding session, when, on motion of Mr. CLARK, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

Section 6 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I wish to say a few words in opposition to this bill. I also wish to state that I represent no one but myself. I may be in a minority of one, but I wish to make the point clear to the Senate before the bill comes up for final passage, and I wish at the same time to pay respect to the Senator from Crawford, Mr. Miller, who has worked like a horse over this bill, and who has shown the disposition of an angel; also the Chairman of the Committee, and to the Senator from Montgomery. I had the honor of serving with them on the sub-committee until the Chairman of the Committee gave a dinner party at the Penn-Harris Hotel, and that finished me. We had as guests one allopath, one homeopath, one eclectic and one osteopath, and it was not a question of dinner at all.

Mr. President, I do not want to crack jokes about this bill because it is too serious a matter, but I want the Senate to understand that the State of Pennsylvania has a Board of Medical Examiners and Licensure, made up of five people; there are two allopaths, two homeopaths and one eclectic, on this board. They examine all candidates for the healing art in the fundamentals of medicine, including surgery, and when it comes to the practice of medicine they have a different set of questions for the candidates who practice those different schools. Now I have great sympathy for the underdog and the osteopath in this case is the underdog. I have no prejudice, as a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, whatever against them. I believe that any school of medicine ought to toe the mark, as the homeopaths have done, and send their candidates to be examined by the regular Board of Examiners and Licensure. This bill creates a special examining board in what is called osteopathic surgery. Now every man knows that if he is to be put on the operating table and go under an anaesthetic he is not very much interested whether the surgeon is an osteopath or what he is, he wants a man who knows how to cut him right. Therefore, I say we might as well set up a board for any school of medicine, no matter what it is. They must be on the level, and any candidate who wants to be licensed to practice major surgery in this State should be man enough to come up and pass the examination of the board set up by the State of Pennsylvania for that purpose. That is my objection to the bill and I will have to vote against it.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President. I will.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator if the doctors outside of the osteopaths object to the passage of this bill.

Mr. WOODWORD. Mr. President, I am speaking entirely for myself, I represent no one but myself.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator further if he has any information relative to the question whether or not doctors advocate the passage of this bill.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I only know that Senator Miller so informed me, and I have no doubt but what that is true, but if I were the only doctor in the State, I still have a right to this opinion, and I think I am correct in stating it.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I am not questioning the right of the Senator to his opinion. I have the information that the bill meets the approval of the doctors of the state and therefore if it meets the approval of all the doctors but Dr. Woodward, I feel as though I would like to vote for the bill.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I sat in many hearings in this most difficult committee of Public Health and Sanitation, and have heard the representatives of the old school say that the ideal method is to treat everybody alike, that they want every school of medicine to be on the level. That was said a hundred times and I do not care whether the doctors of this county or the other county endorse this bill or not, I do not endorse it.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I do not say that this bill in its present form satisfies all of the doctors in the state, but I do say that it satisfies their official representatives who were sent here to represent their legislative interests. The fact of the matter is the bill was amended only yesterday to make it suit them and therefore the doctors in the different districts do not know of the amendments that went in, but the bill in its present form satisfies Dr. Van Sicle the official representative of the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania at Harrisburg, who is also editor of their state publication, also Dr. Mills, who is official representative here of the Homeopathic school, also Dr. Knowles, who has been in conversation by long distance telephone with Dr. Van Sickle and who is chairman of the legislative committee of the State Medical Society. He has approved the bill. These men say, with the bill in its present form, they will not only remove all objection to the bill but actively support it and ask their friends in both houses to vote for it. After a long series of conferences around the dinner table that the Senator from Philadelphia, Doctor Woodward, has referred to, we have finally gotten together, and if you want to please the medical men vote for this bill; if you want to please the osteopaths vote for the bill; if you want to please the general public who are interested in raising the standard of all medical schools vote for the bill.

Mr. President and members of the Senate, I feel that this is a progressive piece of legislation which raises the school of osteopathy to a new plane of dignity and efficiency. We have raised their surgical standard to a seven year course, and in view of the fact that I have the personal word of medical men this morning, who represent the Medical Society, saying that they are in favor of the bill, I hope you will vote for it.

Mr. STITES. Mr. President, I rise to speak on this bill, not so much to discuss the merits of it, but to pay a tribute of gratitude and respect to the work done on this sub-committee by the Senator from Crawford, Mr. Miller. If at the outset of this session you would have asked me what I regarded as the most difficult thing to do in legislation I think I would have said to try to get the medical men, the osteopaths, the eclectics and the other schools of Pennsylvania to agree on any measure that might come before this body. This committee met to consider this bill with an almost hopeless prospect of securing any agreement upon its provisions, and it has only been due to the splendid energy, to the great patience and long suffering consideration by the Senator from Crawford that we have the result that we have to-day with the different schools of medicine being satisfied with this legislation in its present form. The thought of the committee in originally considering the matter was to preserve the splendid traditions of the medical history of Pennsylvania in insisting upon it that the osteopath who desred to be a surgeon should meet the same standard and prepare himself in the same way for his chosen profession that was required of the medical man in order that the public, who are obliged at times, unfortunately, to submit themselves to operations, should be entirely protected. We have done that by requiring, as Senator Miller has said, a preliminary High School training of four years, an additional year of preliminary training and finally two years of actual practice so that as it stands to-day the osteopath who desires to practice surgery is required in every respect to conform to all those things that practice and history has shown to be necessary to properly qualify the surgeon to practice his profession and the interesting spectacle is presented this morning of a bill before the Legislature of Pennsylvania upon which all the schools of medicine agree. Now I think the Senator from Crawford is entitled to the tribute that was once applied to Henry Clay of being the master compromiser. I think everybody ought to support this bill this morning because of the remarkable work that has been done on it by the Senator from Crawford. It is true that the dinners given were not altogether harmonious. There were many times when we sat down around the table that reminded us of the Irishman who walked into the saloon and seeing two men fighting asked "Is this a private fight or can anybody get into it?" But nevertheless all those difficulties have been ironed out, and to-day the medical schools all over the state, so far as their official representatives in Harrisburg are concerned, have agreed to support this bill, and I think they ought to urge members of this body to vote for it.

The PRESIDENT. I heartily subscribe to what the Senator from Montgomery has said and would include him in the same category. I have had some little pride in having made the motion to refer the bill to the sub-committee of which the two Senators are members.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Amend Section 2, page 3, line 3, by inserting after the word "that" the word "is"; also page 5, lines 23 and 24, by striking out "except as provided in Section four"; also Section 6, page 10, line 8, by striking out the words "issued to him"; also Section 8, page 11, line 1, by striking out the words "in other respects"; also Section 9, page 11, line 29, by striking out the word "in"; also Section 9, page 12, line 1, by striking out the words "all other respects"; also Section 10, page 12, line 9, by striking out the words "of course"; also Section 15, page 15, lines 6 and 7, by striking out the words "forty-eight hours" and insert in lieu thereof the words "seven days".

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend the bill on page 4, by striking out lines 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, and 16.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I object to the amendment.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I move that the Senate go into Committee of the Whole for the purpose of special amendment.

Mr. LONG. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I object to that amendment. Section 1, subdivision (8), page 4 of Senate Bill 101, provides for the following exemption; which exemption should not be changed and I request the members of the Senate to vote down this amendment. The amendment that I refer to is as follows:

"(8) Wherein the issuer a company organized under the laws of this state disposes of its own securities in good faith and not for the purpose of avoiding the provisions of this act for the sole account of the issuer without any commission or fee and at a total expense of not more than three per centum of the proceeds realized thereon and where no part of the issue is used directly or indirectly in payment for patents services good will or for property located outside of this state"

There should be no objection to that exemption.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, as a member of the subcommittee of the Committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations, and in conjunction with the Senator from Indiana, Mr. Clark, the Senator from Bedford, Mr. Derrick, the Senator from Clearfield, Mr. Betts, and the Senator from Blair, Mr. Snyder, after spending a long time in the study of this bill I am convinced, and I am not only convinced from my own personal standpoint, but from the standpoint of men who have been in the banking business for years, that this bill will not accomplish what it sets out to do. But regardless of that fact, on account of being in the investment banking business, and in order to avoid any criticism, I am going to support this bill, regardless of how it comes to the floor of the Senate, but I do want the Senators to know that this bill under section 8, on page 4, allows to come into this state anybody that can organize a company and can sell its own stock at a cost not to exceed three per cent., and when the organization is done they can move out of the state and the people that have had the stock sold to them can hold the bag and the Commissioner under this act has no power to supervise the sale of that stock, and has no power to ask anything as to the assets of the company in which the stock is being sold. I mean if one set of men should be regulated then all men in the same business should be regulated and I do not think that this bill should contain any exception. As an investment banker if I am going to come under the jurisdiction, control and supervision of the Commissioner of Banking, or a man learned in the investment banking business delegated by the Commissioner of Banking, I do not think that there should be one exception in the examination or supervision of that business. It was intended to do that in Section 4, by exempting public service companies, railroad companies and so on, and there was so much opposition it was stricken out and the special privileges were not granted. Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, I think the amendment that I offer is a fair amendment. I have no objection that investment bankers should come under the supervision of the Commissioner of Banking, but when you have power to put me there, and other men in that business, legitimate dealer for twenty-five years, some fifty years, I say to you that the Senate and House of Representatives, or the Governor in signing the bill, have no right to exempt anybody that is going to continue a practice at which they aim to kill. That is the reason I made the motion to go into the Committee of the Whole to consider this amendment to strike out from the bill. From a standpoint of a square deal to the investment bankers who come under this act and who are willing to come under it, there is no legitimate dealer who fears it, I say do not leave a loophole so that they can climb in.

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, and gentlemen of the Senate, I just want to emphasize this provision again by reading it:

"(8) Wherein the issuer a company organized under the laws of this state disposes of its own securities in good faith and not for the purpose of avoiding the provisions of this act for the sole account of the issuer without any commission or fee and at a total expense of not more than three per centum of the proceeds realized thereon and where no part of the issue is used directly or indirectly in payment for patent services good will or for property located outside of this state."

I do not know why that provision should be objected to and while I have respect for the opinion of the Senator from Allegheny, it does not carry much weight with me so far as that section is concerned.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Barr and Mr. Long, and were as follows, viz:

Two-thirds of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 911, (House Bill No. 112), entitled:

An Act to amend section five of the act approved June 17, 1913, (P. L. 507) entitled "An act to provide revenue for State and County purposes and in cities coextensive with counties for city and county purposes imposing taxes upon certain classes of personal property, providing for the assessment and collection of the same, providing for the duties and compensation of prothonotaries and recorders in connection therewith and modifying existing legislation which provided for raising revenue for State purposes providing for the assessment of property and the collection of taxes, interest and penalties in cases of the refusal or failure of taxables to make return and in the case of false or incomplete returns.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr President, I have been asked to explain this bill. This bill was drawn for me by a lawyer in Philadelphia who has a great many wealthy clients who do not pay the four mill personal property tax. It would mean that this bill, if passed requires his wealthy clients to pay their tax. In Philadelphia county possibly one third of the personal property tax is not collected by the Board of Revision of Taxes, and if we do not jack up the personal property tax collection we are going to have an income tax in the State. That is one reason why I am interested in this bill, I do not want an income tax. The bill is endorsed by the Board of Revision of Taxes to correct a defect in the case where the Supreme Court ruled that back taxes could not be collected. This bill applies no matter how far back the negligence occurred that the four mill tax can be collected together with a penalty of six percent thereon.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I am in full accord with the sentiment expressed by my distinguished colleague from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, and I am very glad to cooperate with him in what I regard as very beneficial legislation.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constition, and were as follows, viz:

A Supplement to the act approved the ninth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, (P. L. 814), entitled "An act providing for the erection and construction by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey of a bridge over the Delaware River connecting the city of Philadelphia and the city of Camden and the approaches thereto; providing for a joint commission for that purpose, and defining its powers and duties; providing for an independent commission in this Commonwealth in relation thereto, and defining its powers and duties; providing for the payment of a part of the cost thereof by the city of Philadelphia; and providing for the acquiring, taking, and condemnation of the real estate for the site and approaches thereof; providing for the turning over of said bridge upon its completion; and making an appropriation for the purposes of this act," as amended by an act approved the twenty-sixth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (P. L. 287); extending the power and authority of the Delaware River Bridge Joint Commission and its successors to provide for equipment of the Delaware River Bridge with facilities for railway, railroad, motor bus, vehicles, or other means of transportation; also for telegraph, telephone, electric or other public service facilities; authorizing operation, maintenance and leasing thereof; providing for the fixing and collection of charges, rates, rentals or tolls therefor; and authorizing the making of contracts or leases for use and occupation of property acquired.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I think it might be well to explain to the Senate the purpose of this bill. This is a bill to amend the so called Delaware Bridge Act. This would give the bridge commissioners of Pennsylvania the necessary authority to regulate the operation of the bridge between the two states.

An Act to amend section three of article eighteen of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, (P. L. 581), entitled "An act for the better government of cities of the first class of this Commonwealth;" providing that when indebtedness made by council is assumed, funded or refunded with the assent of the electors, said indebtedness shall thereafter be excluded in computing the amount incurred by council without the assent of electors.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, this bill is intended to provide a condition whereby the municipalites can transfer from one loan account to another. In other words, in Philadelphia we have what is known as a councilmanic borrowing capacity, also what is known as an electorate borrowing capacity. For instance, by way of illustration, we sometimes pass an ordinance in councils for the opening of a certain street and unless we have in advance a permanent fund the cost of the opening of that street always remains a councilmanic loan. There is no way of wiping it out, whereas if we have a lump sum loan in advance it then becomes a part of the electorate loan system. This bill in endorsed by all of the experts that have had to do with the municipal government.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

WEDNESDAY, MAY 16, 1923.

The House met at 11:00 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (C. J. Goodnough), in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. B. Cox, offered the following prayer:

Almighty and eternal God, we make greatful acknowledgement of all Thy goodness and unmerited favor which Thou hast bestowed upon us. Thou hast ever been faithful and true to us in all things, while our service has been fragmentary and imperfect at best. We beseech that Thou wouldst bless us and enable us to be watchful and careful in all things, lest we fail in the things that have been committed to our hands. Bless each one individually and with quick discernment in the many problems and questions that clamor at our hands for solution. Guide us by Thy control this day, and bring us to its close with the comforting consciousness that we have strived to do our best in serving Thee and our fellowmen. We ask it in the name of Christ. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday's proceedings.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of yesterday's proceedings, when, on motion of Mr. Brownmiller, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal approved.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. STONER. Mr. Speaker I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. STONER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, my attention has just been called to an article which appeared in the North American of Philadelphia, on May 12, 1923. In this article, the writer, commenting evidently upon the bill under discussion in the House last week regarding this $250,000 of the Governor's put in the appropriation bill, made the following statement:

"In addition, there were five absentees, all pledged to putting through the enforcement program, and some of these are known to have deliberately evaded the issue. They include among others, Stoner of Allegheny, and all were Republicans"

I wish to say, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, that that statement is an absolute falsehood, and either known by the man who wrote it to be a falsehood, or else written in such reckless disregard of its truth, as amounts to the same thing. On Monday, two weeks ago, I came to Harrisburg, was taken ill on the way over, left here with, as the doctor told me, a temperature between 104 and 105; went to bed the following day under the care of a physician remained in bed until the following Thursday a week, which was last Thursday. I presented myself in this House as soon as I was able after that illness.

In addition to that, I desire to say that I never at any time, during the election nor at any other time, pledged myself to the enforcement program of the Governor, nor to any other specific legislation of any kind, but came down here absolutely unhampered. That I have supported it so far as the enforcement program of the Governor is concerned is due to the fact that I desired to do, and in no case was I bound by any pledge.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentlman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. GOEHRING. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. GOEHRING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the previous Speaker quoted an article in a newspaper, in which my name also appears. Last night I had a happy meeting with the writer of the article. The writer regrets very much putting that article in the paper and promised me last night that he would retract in next Sunday's issue. I had the great pleasure of telling the writer that I had never promised the Governor to go along with his enforcement program, or any other person's, but that any bills on the floor of the House I read and voted for if I thought they were right; that I was unpledged to anyone, except my own conscience, to vote for them.

I was absent last week due to pressure in the office on Monday, and got here Tuesday afternoon after the session. I criticised the writer for not asking me in person why I was not present on Tuesday afternoon.

I took his explanation, and I think he is sincere and will retract this next Sunday. In view of his promise to me I would ask the members of the House to overlook it, as I believe he will fulfill his promise. I think he will retract his statement printed in last Sunday's paper.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman, under his question of person privilege, will be spread upon the Journal.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in this morning's Inquirer of Philadelphia there is an editorial in which the editor pays his respects to the present legislature of Pennsylvania. Now, it seems to me, as one of the members of this Body, that that is really a complement. I think that the reason this editorial appears is because this Legislature has refused to do the bidding of this particular paper and the special privilege interests which this paper represents. I have been in this House four sessions and I have not known a Legislature that has shown as much independence as has the present one of 1923.

You all know the saying, "Whom the gods would destroy, they first make mad", and the fact that the newspapers are getting mad is the best sign that we have for the people of Pennsylvania. It, at least, goes to show that they feel they can no longer dictate; that a few men, who consider themselves higher than this Body, can no longer stand here and dictate to us just what we are to do. The difference being the viewpoint of the legislature and the viewpoint f the paper. This very paper represents a special privilege interest, and is now trembling in its boots for fear that that interest may be touched later on and that is why this editorial appears. On the other hand the legislature of Pennsylvania represents the people. We have been elected and sent here by the people of Pennsylvania, and it is only natural that there should be a clash. We cannot stand here as legislators and do the bidding of newspapers that are controlled by special interests and at the same time do the bidding of our fellows back home. I feel that coming from the source that it does, that this editorial is one of the finest compliments that the Legislature of Pennsylvania could receive in many a day. God speed the day when every special interest paper will denounce the legislature of Pennsylvania, because that is a good sign; that is a healthy sign; that is a sign that the members of this House are beginning to serve their constitutents, and the people, instead of serving these interests which for years have been trying to dominate and dictate the part which this Body was to take.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman on his question of person privilege, will be spread upon the Journal.
